Recital of his Majesty's Order in Council, Dec. 20, 1780.

'WHEREAS his Majesty, by Order in Council, dated the twentieth Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, was pleased to order, that General Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects, of the States General of the United Provinces; so that as well as his Majesty's Fleet and Ships, and also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissionated by Letters of Marque or General Reprizals, or otherwise, by his Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods, belonging to the States General of the United Provinces, or their Subjects, or others inhabiting within

'within any of the Territories of the aforesaid States General, and bring the same to Judgment in any of 'the Courts of Admiralty within his Majesty's Dominions: And whereas it is expedient that such of the 'several Provisions of three Acts of Parliament, which are now in Force; the one made in the eighteenth 'Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Captors of Prizes, with respect Act 18 Geo. III. 'to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; one other Act, made in the nineteenth 'Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting Relief to the Captors of Prizes, with respect to 19 Geo. III. 'bringing and landing certain French Prizes in this Kingdom; and the other made in the last Session of 'Parliament, intituled, An Act for extending the Provisions of two Acts, made in the eighteenth Year of his and 20 Geo. III. recited. 'present Majesty's Reign, and in the last Session of Parliament, with respect to bringing Prize Goods into this 'Kingdom, to Spanish Prize Goods; and for repealing so much of the said last-mentioned Act as relates to the 'Certificates for Prize Tea and East India Goods exported from this Kingdom to Ireland; for Removal of East 'India Goods, condemned as Prize at any Out-port, to London for Sale, and of Prize Goods for Exportation; 'and for reducing the Duty on Foreign Prize Tobacco; should be extended in like Manner to all Prize 'Goods which have been or may be taken from the States General of the United Provinces, or their Sub-'jects, or others inhabiting within any of the Territories of the said States General, in pursuance of his 'Majesty's said Order in Council, subject nevertheless to such Alterations and Regulations as herein after 'prescribed:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the Such Parts of the recited Acts as are now in Force extended to Dutch Prizes taken since Dec. 20, 1780. said recited Acts, made in the eighteenth and nineteenth Years of his Majesty's Reign, and in the last Session of Parliament, and all the Articles, Clauses, and Provisions therein which are now in Force (except where any Alteration is made by this Act), shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all Prize Goods and Ships or Vessels which have been taken from the States General of the United Provinces, or their Subjects, or others inhabiting within any of the Territories of the said States General, since the twentieth Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, or which hereafter may be taken during the Continuance of the present Hostilities with the said States General, by any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or by any private or other Ship or Vessel having Commission or other Authority from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being, for that Purpose.

'IV. And whereas it frequently happens that Prizes are taken and carried into Ports in Foreign Parts, 'and condemned in some Court of Admiralty within his Majesty's Dominions out of this Kingdom, and Purchasers of Prize Goods condemned abroad may import them into this Kingdom in the same Manner as the Captors themselves: 'the Captors may be under Necessity of disposing of the same there; now, to encourage the bringing 'such Prizes into this Kingdom after Condemnation and Sale,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Purchasers of such Prizes of the Captors shall, upon Importation thereof into this Kingdom, have and be intitled to the same Liberty of warehousing such Goods, and such Goods shall in all other Respects be subject and liable to the same Duties, Regulations, and Restrictions, as they would be subject and liable to by Law if the same had been imported by the Captors, without being sold abroad, subject nevertheless to the Proviso herein-after mentioned; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

condemned as Prize in one of his Majesty's Courts of Admiralty, or Vice-admiralty, naming the Place where, and the Time when, such Goods were so condemned, and the Name of the Ship or Vessel or Ships or Vessels by which they were captured; which Certificate shall also describe the Species of such Goods, with the Marks and Numbers of the Packages containing the same; and the Master, or Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall also at the same Time make Oath, before such Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation (which Oath such Collector and other proper Officer is and are hereby respectively authorised and impowered to administer), that the Goods so imported in such Ship or Vessel are the same Goods which are mentioned in such Certificate, and no other; and on Failure of any of the Particulars herein required, such Goods shall be subject and liable to the same Duties, Restrictions, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as they would be subject and liable to, if this Act had not been made.

An Act for repealing the present Duties upon Paper, Pasteboards, Millboards, and Scaleboards, made in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof.

Preamble.

' WHEREAS by an Act, made in the tenth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, ' for laying Duties upon Sope and Paper made in Great Britain, and for other Purposes therein ' mentioned, certain Duties were laid on all Paper made in Great Britain, according to the several and ' particular Rates and Values therein enumerated, and other Duties were imposed after the Rate of twelve ' Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the true and real Value of all other Paper so made as aforesaid, ' and not particularly charged in the said Act; and by one other Act, made in the twelfth Year of her ' said late Majesty's Reign, a further Rate and Duty was laid on the said Papers; all which said several ' Rates and Duties were to be charged, levied, and paid, in Manner as by the said Acts are particularly ' directed and expressed, and which said Acts are by subsequent Acts continued and made perpetual: And ' whereas it hath been found by Experience, that the several and respective Rates and Duties so charged ' upon Paper, by the said Acts particularly enumerated, are not proportionate to the true Value of such ' Papers; and that the Value of the other Papers rateable by the said Acts, and not therein particularly ' charged, sworn to, or affirmed by the Makers thereof, and according to which the Duties thereon are ' charged and payable, have been very unequal, some Persons greatly undervaluing the same, whereby ' great Frauds and Abuses have been committed, to the Detriment of the Revenue, and Injury of the fair ' Trader: Now, for the remedying of the said Abuses, and to prevent like Frauds, and to the Intent that ' all Paper-makers may be on an equal Footing; we, your Majesty's faithful Commons, in Parliament ' assembled, do beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the twenty-first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, the several Rates and Duties upon Paper, Millboards, Pasteboards, and Scaleboards, given and granted by the said Acts, made in the tenth and twelfth Years of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, and which have been since continued and made perpetual (except so much of the said Duties as are imposed by the said Acts upon Paper to be printed, painted, or stained in Great Britain, to serve for Hangings, and other Uses), shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid or payable; any Thing in the before-mentioned Acts to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Recital of two Acts, made in 10 Annæ, and 12 Annæ.

From May 21, 1781, the Duties on Paper, Millboards, &c. granted by the recited Acts, repealed. (Exception.)

CAP. XXVI.

An Act to permit Goods, the Product or Manufacture of certain Places within the Levant or Mediterranean Seas, to be imported into Great Britain or Ireland in British or Foreign Vessels from any Place whatsoever; and for laying a Duty on Cotton and Cotton Wool imported into this Kingdom in Foreign Ships or Vessels, during the present Hostilities.

Preamble. Recital of the Navigation Act 12 Car. II.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, all Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Africa, Asia, or America, or any Part thereof, are to be imported and brought into the Kingdom of England, Ireland, or Wales, the Islands of Guernsey and Jersey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in English-built Shipping, or other Shipping belonging to some of the aforesaid Places, whereof the Master, and Three-fourths of the Mariners at least, are English, and are not to be shipped and brought from any other Place or Places, Country or Countries, but only from those of the said Growth, Production, or Manufacture, or from those Ports where the said Goods and Commodities can only, or are, or usually have been first shipped for Transportation, and from none other Places or Countries, under the Penalty and Forfeiture of the Ship and Goods, excepting in some particular Cases provided by the said Act: And whereas, by the said in Part recited Act, it is also enacted, That no Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Muscovy, or of any of the Countries, Dominions, or Territories, to the Great Duke or Emperor of Muscovy or Russia belonging; as also that no Sorts of Masts, Timber, or Boards; no foreign Salt, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Hemp, or Flax, Raisins, Figs, Prunes, Olive Oils; no Sort of Corn or Grain, Sugar, Pot-ashes, Wines, Vinegar, or Spirits called Aqua Vitæ, or Brandy Wine, shall be imported into England, Ireland, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, but in such as do truly, and without Fraud, belong to the People thereof, or some of them, as the true Owners and Proprietors thereof, and whereof the Master, and Three-fourths of the Mariners at least, are English; and that no Currants, or Commodities of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture, of any of the Countries, Islands, Dominions, or Territories, to the Ottoman or Turkish Empire belonging, shall be imported into any of the fore-mentioned Places in any Ship or Vessel but which is of English-built, and navigated as aforesaid, and in no other, except only such Foreign Ships and Vessels as are of the Built of that Country or Place of which the said Goods are the Growth, Production, or Manufacture respectively, or of such Port where the said Goods can only be, or most usually are, first shipped for Transportation, and whereof the Master, and Three-fourths of the Mariners at least, are of the said Country or Place, under the Penalty and Forfeiture of Ship and Goods: And whereas several of the Articles in the said Act, and herein-before particularly enumerated, being the Growth or Production of some of the Places or Countries within the Levant or Mediterranean Seas, cannot be now imported directly from thence in British Vessels without great Hazard of Capture by the Enemies, and much Expence of Insurance to the Merchants trading to this Kingdom; and it has been found necessary, during the present Hostilities with France, Spain, and the States General of the United Provinces, by temporary Laws which are now in Force, to suspend, in some Degree, the strict Regulations prescribed by the said recited Act; and it is further expedient, for the Encouragement of Trade and the Increase of the public Revenue, to permit, for a limited Time, under certain Restrictions, various Articles of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture, of Turkey or Egypt, and other Goods and Commodities which are enumerated in the before-recited Act, which are of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture, of Places or Countries within the Streights or Levant Seas, to be imported into this Kingdom, or the Kingdom of Ireland, in Foreign Vessels, although such Goods are not shipped and brought directly from the Place or Country of their Growth, Production, or Manufacture, or from the Ports or Places from whence such Goods are, or usually have been, first shipped for Transportation:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons admitted into, and made free of, the Company of Merchants of England trading into the Levant Seas, commonly called or known by the Name of The Turkey Company, to import into Great Britain or Ireland any Goods or Commodities which have heretofore usually been imported from Turkey or Egypt, or from any Place within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior within the Levant Seas, in any Ship or Vessel built in, or belonging to, Great Britain or Ireland, navigated according to Law; or in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, navigated by Foreign Seamen, from any Port or Place whatsoever, upon Payment of the same Duties, if imported into Great Britain, as the like Goods would be subject and liable to if imported in British Ships directly from the Place of their Growth, Production, or Manufacture; but if such Goods shall be imported in any Foreign-built Ship or Vessel, then, and in such Case, the Goods so imported shall be subject to the Aliens Duties, if such Goods would have been subject and liable thereto if this Act had not been made; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding.

After June 1, 1781, any Person free of the Turkey Company may import into Great Britain or Ireland any Goods usually imported from Turkey, &c. either in British Ships, or Ships belonging to any State in Amity with his Majesty.

What Duties shall be paid for Goods so imported.

porter shall produce a Certificate of his being free of the Turkey Company, &c.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, any Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of any Place or Country within the Streights or Levant Seas, which have been heretofore usually imported from any Port or Place in Europe, within the Streights of Gibraltar, except such Goods or Commodities as might heretofore be imported only from such Ports or Places as are within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, shall and may, during the Continuance of this Act, be imported and brought, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, into Great Britain or Ireland from any Port or Place whatsoever, not being within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, in any Ship or Vessel, built in or belonging to Great Britain or Ireland, navigated according to Law, or in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, navigated with foreign Mariners; upon Payment of the same Duties, if imported into Great Britain, as the like Goods would be subject and liable to if imported directly from the Place of their Growth, Production, or Manufacture, excepting Drugs of the Growth of, or which have heretofore been usually imported from, Turkey or Egypt, or any of the Dominions of the Grand Seignior within the Levant Seas, which, if imported by any Person or Persons not free of the Turkey Company, shall be liable to the like Duties as they would have been liable to, if not imported directly from the Place of their Growth and Production, if this Act had not been made; and if any such Goods shall be imported in any Foreign-built Ship or Vessel, then, and in such Case, the Goods so imported shall be subject to the Aliens Duties, if such Goods would have been subject and liable thereto by Law if this Act had not been made; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

After June 1, 1781, Goods usually imported from the Mediterranean may be imported in British Ships, or Ships belonging to any State in Amity with his Majesty.

What Duties shall be paid for such Goods.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for and upon all Cotton and Cotton Wool which shall be imported into this Kingdom in any foreign Ship or Vessel, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a Duty of one Penny Farthing for every Pound Weight of such Cotton or Cotton Wool, which shall be paid down in ready Money, without any Discount or Deduction whatsoever; and shall be also subject and liable to an additional Impost or Duty of five Pounds per Centum, in the same Manner as the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum is granted to his Majesty by an Act made in the nineteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon the Produce of the several Duties under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in Great Britain.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Part of the said Duties hereinbefore granted shall be repaid or drawn back upon the Re-exportation of the said Cotton or Cotton Wool; and the said Duties shall be raised, levied, collected, recovered, and paid, in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as the Duty of Customs, commonly called The Old Subsidy, is raised, levied, collected, recovered, paid, and applied, and is subject or liable to by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force (except where any Alteration is made by this Act), as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Clauses, Powers, and Provisions in such Acts had been repeated and enacted in the Body of this present Act; and the said Duties herein-before granted shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the public Revenue, and shall be so kept apart in the said Receipt of Exchequer as a Fund for the Encouragement of the Growth of Cotton in his Majesty's Leeward Islands, and for encouraging the Importation thereof into Great Britain, in such Way and Manner as Parliament shall hereafter direct.

No Drawback to be allowed on the Re-exportation of Cotton or Cotton Wool.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer, &c. How to be applied.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and remain in full Force during the present Hostilities with France, Spain, and the States General of the United Provinces, or either of them.

Continuance of this Act.

Reciting that a new Market has been completed, &c.

'XXV. And whereas, in pursuance of the Directions and Powers contained in the before-recited Act, 'the Committee respectively deputed and appointed by the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the 'University of Oxford, and the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, have proceeded 'to erect and build a new Market, and have completed the same, on a Plot or Piece of Ground set out 'and described by the Commissioners appointed by, or acting under the said Act: And whereas, by the 'several Laws now in Force for recovering Rents in Arrear, the Person distraining any Goods or Chat-'tels cannot sell or dispose of the same until the Expiration of five Days next after such Distress taken, 'and Notice thereof given to the Party distrained upon, which has been found inconvenient in Distresses 'made for Arrears of Rents due from Persons occupying Shops and other Erections in the said Market, 'by reason of the Goods being of a perishable Nature:' Be it therefore further enacted, That in all Cases where any Rent shall henceforth become due and be in Arrear, for or in respect of any of the said Shops and other Erections in the said Market, and any Goods or Chattels shall be taken in Distress for the same, and the Tenant or Owner of the Goods or Chattels, so distrained, shall not, within the Space of twenty-four Hours next after such Distress taken, and Notice thereof (with the Cause of such Distress) given to the Person distrained upon, or left at his usual Place of Abode, or upon some notorious Part of the Premises charged with the Rent distrained for, replevy the same, with sufficient Sureties, as in the Cases of other Distresses, then, after such Distress and Notice as aforesaid, and Expiration of the said twenty-four Hours, the Goods and Chattels so taken in Distress shall and may be appraised, and afterwards sold and disposed of in such Manner and for such Purposes, and under and subject to such Provisions and Regulations, as are mentioned and enacted with respect to other Distresses for Rent; any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Distress taken therein may be sold in twenty-four Hours, if not replevied.

'XXVI. And whereas it will be more convenient that the present Market for Butter and Eggs should 'be removed into the said New Market; and some Doubts have arisen whether Apples, Cherries, and 'other Fruit, which are sold or exposed to Sale in the said University and City, and Suburbs thereof, are 'obliged, under and by Force of the before-recited Act, to be brought into and sold in the said New 'Market:' Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons hereafter to vend or expose to Sale any Butter, Eggs, Apples, Cherries, or other Fruit, in any other Place whatsoever within the said University, City, or Suburbs, than in the said New Market (other than and except such Apples, Cherries, and Fruit, as shall be sold by Persons inhabiting within the said University, City, or Suburbs, within their own Houses or Shops, and which shall be bona fide their Property, and which shall be raised within their own Gardens or Plantations within the said University or City, or shall have been by them purchased in the said New Market); and every Person who shall hereafter vend or expose to Sale any Butter, Eggs, Apples, Cherries, or other Fruit (except as aforesaid), in any other Place within the said University, City, or Suburbs, than in the said New Market, shall be subject and liable to the same Penalty, and to be recovered and disposed of in the same Manner as is mentioned and directed by the said Act, in respect of Persons vending or exposing to Sale any Manner of Flesh, or other raw Victuals, Fish, Poultry, Herbs, Roots, or Garden Stuff, in any other Place within the said University, City, or Suburbs, than in the said New Market.

'XXVIII. And whereas the North Part of the said New Market consists of an Area, or void Space of 'Ground, which is occupied upon Market Days by Persons resorting to the said Market with Apples, 'Peas, Potatoes, and other Garden Stuff, in their several Seasons, and various other marketable Goods 'and Commodities, and no Provision is made by the said Act for Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money 'in respect thereof:' Be it therefore enacted, That the said Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, and Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, and their respective Successors, or the Committee by them respectively from Time to Time appointed as aforesaid, shall and may demand and take of and from the said several Persons so occupying the said Area, with their respective Goods as aforesaid, any reasonable Sum or Sums of Money, by way of and as a Compensation for, and in Proportion to the Space of Ground so by them respectively occupied.

Recital of Agreements at what Sums the New Market shall be assessed in the respective Parishes of All Saints and St. Michael.

'XXIX. And whereas the rating and assessing of the said New Market to the Land Tax in the Parish 'of All Saints in the said City (within which Parish the greater Part of the said Market is built) hath been 'productive of much Dispute between the said Committee of the said Market and the Proprietors of 'Estates within the said Parish of All Saints, and the said Committee and Proprietors have come to an 'Agreement, that so much of the said Market as is situate within the said Parish of All Saints shall from 'henceforth be considered as an Estate of one hundred and forty Pounds per Annum, and shall for ever 'afterwards be assessed to the Land Tax in that Parish as an Estate of that Value: And forasmuch as the 'Income from the Remainder of the said Market, which is situated in the Parish of Saint Michael, in the 'said City, is precarious and uncertain, it will be proper and expedient, and may hereafter prevent Dis-'putes, to settle and ascertain what yearly Value that Part of the Market shall in future be rated at, to the 'Land Tax within that Parish, and the Proprietors of Estates there have hitherto considered the same as 'an Estate of forty-six Pounds a Year, and the same hath been accordingly charged to the Land Tax at 'that Sum, and they are consenting that the same shall be established and fixed, so far as concerns the 'said Land Tax, at that yearly Value:' Be it therefore further enacted, That the said New Market, and all and every the Shops, Sheds, Stands, Stalls, and other Erections and Buildings therein, and all other Profits, Advantages, and Emoluments, issuing and arising therefrom, or becoming due or payable in

The above Agreements confirmed.

'XXX. And whereas frequent Inconveniencies arise by Persons driving Wheelbarrows, and leading 'or riding Horses, through the Avenues from the High Street, into the said Market; or by vending or 'exposing to Sale, Fruit, Garden-stuff, or other Matters or Things, within such Avenues:' For Prevention whereof, be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall hereafter drive any Wheelbarrow, Sledge, Cart, or other Carriage; or ride or lead any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, loaded or unloaded, through or into the said Avenues, or any of them, or shall vend or expose to Sale, within any Avenue or Passage leading into the said Market from the said High Street, any Fruit, Garden-stuff, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever, he, she, or they, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding five Shillings, nor less than one Shilling, for every such Offence, to be recovered and paid in like Manner as other the Penalties inflicted by this Act. How the Officer shall be rewarded in case the Coffee, &c. seized by him shall prove unsaleable.

'XX. And whereas Tea Dealers, and other Persons, do frequently, under Colour and Sanction of the 'Permits granted to them for the Removal of Tea from one Part of this Kingdom to another, find Means 'to convey smuggled Tea into their Stocks, near to the Coasts of this Kingdom, and afterwards to con-'vey and remove such smuggled Tea to Places within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or to 'other Parts of this Kingdom, there to be sold and disposed of, to the encouraging of Smuggling, the 'great Diminution of the public Revenue, and to the Injury of the fair Trader;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, no Tea (exceeding the Quantity of six Pounds Weight) shall at any Time (save as herein-after is mentioned) be removed or carried from any Part of this Kingdom, not being within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or of the Chief Office of Excise in London, to any Place within the said Limits; and if any Tea shall be found so removed or carried, or removing or carrying, whether within or without Permit (save as herein-after is mentioned), the same, together with the Canisters, Bags, and other Package whatsoever, containing the same, and the Vessels and Boats, and the Horses, and other Cattle, and Carriages, employed in removing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by the Officer or Officers of Excise.

Several Packages of 40 Pounds each may be sent to the same Person, &c. under different Permits, &c.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, all Tea seized and arrested by any Officer of the Customs, or for the Inland Duties upon Tea, for any Cause of Forfeiture, in any Part of England, Dominion of Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall, before the same Tea, or any Part thereof, be sold, be sent to and deposited in some Warehouse or Warehouses, to be appointed for that Purpose by the respective Commissioners of Excise and Customs in England, within the City of London, in order to be there publicly sold; and that all Tea seized and arrested by the respective Officers of the Customs or Excise, for any Cause of Forfeiture, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall, before the same, or any Part thereof, be sold, be sent to and deposited in some Warehouse or Warehouses, to be appointed for that Purpose by the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in Scotland, within the Limits of the City of Edinburgh, to be there publicly sold; all which said Teas shall be sent to the said Warehouses, in the said Cities of London and Edinburgh respectively, with proper Permits signed by the respective Officers of Excise, or Supervisors of the Place or District from whence the said Tea is to be removed, to accompany such Tea from the Parts or Places where the same shall have been secured, after the same shall have been seized and arrested as aforesaid, to such Warehouse or Warehouses, so to be appointed as aforesaid; in which Permits shall be expressed that the Tea so sent is Tea seized as forfeited, or Tea condemned as forfeited, as the Case shall happen to be; any Thing in this, or in any other Act of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

After July 25, 1781, all Tea seized in England or Wales shall be sent to London and deposited in Warehouses; and all Tea seized in Scotland shall be sent to Edinburgh, and so deposited, &c.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, if any Dealer in Tea, who shall have received into his Stock any Tea removed according to the Directions of this Act, and accompanied with an authentic Permit or Certificate, shall see Cause to return the same, or any Part thereof, to the Person from whom he received the same, then and in every such Case such Tea Dealer may, within twenty-four Hours after he or she shall have received the same Tea into his or her Stock, give Twelve

How Dealers are to proceed who shall see Cause to return any Tea received by them agreeable to this Act.

Hours Notice in Writing to the Officer of Excise, under whose Survey such Dealer shall then be, of his Intention to return the said Tea, or any Part thereof, and shall in such Notice express the true Cause and Occasion for returning the same, and such Officer is hereby required to attend accordingly; and so soon as the said Officer shall have examined the said Tea intended to be so returned, and shall have taken an Account of the Quality and of the Quantity thereof, such Dealer in Tea shall forthwith, and in the Presence of such Officer, repack the same Tea, and shall immediately, or within Half an Hour after the coming of the said Officer, and in the Presence of the said Officer, write on the Outside of the Package, in which the returned Tea shall then be, in large legible Characters, as well his own Christian and Surname, as also the Christian and Surnames of the Person or Persons, or the Name or Firm of the Company from whose Stock the same Tea was received, and likewise the Words Returned Tea; and the said Officer is hereby required and directed to underwrite on the Package his own Christian and Surname, and to mark the said Package with some Mark or Number, and shall then, and not before, grant a Permit or Certificate to accompany the said Tea so to be returned; in which Permit or Certificate shall be expressed the Quantity and Quality of the Tea so returned, the Cause and Occasion of returning the same, the Mark or Number put on the Package, the Christian and Surname both of the Person from whose Stock removed, and of the Person to whom the same is to be returned, and also the Time for which such Permit shall be in Force: And if any such Tea be found returned, or in Part returned, or returning, without such Permit or Certificate as aforesaid accompanying the same; or if such Tea be found returned, or in Part returned, or returning to any other Person or Persons than the Person or Persons from whom the said Tea had been first received; or if the Tea returned, or in Part returned, or returning with such Permit or Certificate as aforesaid, be not the identical Tea which had been received as aforesaid, without any Addition to, or Alteration of the same; then, and in each and every such Case, the said Tea, with the Package containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and the Person or Persons returning the same, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Proviso, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Officer to grant a Permit.

Penalty on returning Tea without a proper Permit, &c.

'XXV. And whereas Tea of small Value, and of inferior Quality, is frequently sent from the Stocks 'of Tea Dealers to other Dealers in Tea with Permits or Certificates to protect the same, and great 'Frauds are practised by evil-minded Persons, who change the Tea whilst the same is removing from one 'Place to another, and who substitute smuggled Tea of far superior Quality and Value in the Place 'thereof: Now, in order to enable the Officers for the Inland Duties upon Tea to detect such Frauds,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, when any Dealer in Tea shall have taken out any Permit or Permits for removing Tea from his own Stock to the Stock of any other like Dealer, it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers for the said Inland Duties, to demand a Sample (not exceeding two Ounces, or less than one Ounce, to be sealed by the Trader, if he shall think fit, in the Presence of the Officer) out of each Parcel of the Tea so intended to be removed, paying for such Sample according to the Price that such Tea shall then commonly bear and be sold for: And if any such Dealer, so sending away Tea as aforesaid, shall by himself, or by his Servant, refuse to suffer or permit such Officer or Officers to take away any such Sample of such Tea upon his or their offering to pay for the same the Price that such Tea shall then commonly bear and be sold for; or if any such Dealer in Tea shall by himself, or by his Servant, deliver a Sample of Tea, not being the very Tea so to be sent away with the said Permit or Certificate as aforesaid; every such Dealer shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Officers to demand a Sample out of each Parcel of Tea intended to be removed, paying for the same.

Penalty on refusing Officer such Sample, &c.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Tea, exceeding six Pounds Weight, shall be found carrying or removing from any one Part of this Kingdom to any other Part thereof, unless at such Times as herein-after mentioned; that is to say, from the twenty-ninth Day of September to the twenty-fifth Day of March yearly, between the Hours of Seven in the Morning and five in the Evening; and from the said twenty-fifth Day of March to the twenty-ninth Day of September yearly, between the Hours of Five in the Morning and Seven in the Evening (except the same is removing or carrying by a known common Stage Coach, Waggon, or other Stage Carriage, which usually travel out of those Hours), the said Tea, and the Package containing the same, whether the same be accompanied with or without a Permit, and all Cattle and Carriages made Use of in the removing or carrying the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers for the Inland Duties upon Tea.

No Tea, above six Pounds Weight, to be removed from one Town to another in the Night; on Penalty of Forfeiture, &c.

'XXVII. And whereas great Frauds have been, and are daily practised by Persons dealing in exciseable 'Commodities, who take out Permits from the Officers of Excise for removing those Commodities from 'their respective Stocks, and, under Pretence of sending the same to distant Parts, do obtain Permits to 'continue in Force longer than is necessary for the removing the said Goods, and instead of removing the 'same directly from their respective Stocks, do make Use of the same Permits for protecting smuggled 'Goods, whereby the Revenue is greatly lessened, and the fair Trader in those Commodities aggrieved: 'And whereas Doubts have arisen, whether Officers of Excise, who give Permits to accompany excise-'able Goods or Commodities removing from one Place of this Kingdom to another, by Land or by 'Water, have Authority to limit and express in such Permits the Time within which the Goods and 'Commodities, in such Permits specified or mentioned, shall be removed from and out of the Stock of the 'Persons taking out such Permits, and also the Times within which the said Goods and Commodities shall 'be delivered and received into the Stocks of the Person or Persons respectively to whom the same are so 'permitted to be sent:' Now, to put an End to all Doubts, be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it is the true Intent and Meaning of the several Acts of Parliament, which direct the giving of such Permits, that the Officers of Excise who give the same should, and they are bound to express and limit, in every such Permit, as well the Time for which such Permits shall be in Force, for removing and sending away such Goods or Commodities from and out of the Stocks of the Persons taking out

Preamble.

Officers, in their Permits for removing exciseable Goods, are to express the out such Permits, as also the Time within which the same Goods or Commodities shall be delivered, and actually received into the Stocks of the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be so permitted to be sent: And, if any Goods or Commodities, liable to Excise or Inland Duties, and which, by the several Statutes in such Case made, are required to be removed or sent away with Permit, are not actually removed and sent away from and out of every such Stock within the Time limited and expressed in the respective Permits for removing and sending away the same, or, in Default of so sending away and removing the said Goods or Commodities, the respective Permits shall not be returned to the Officer or Officers from whom the same were had; then, and in every such Case, the Person or Persons, from and out of whose Stock the said Goods or Commodities are thereby authorised to be removed, shall be subject to the like Forfeitures and Penalties as are directed in and by an Act, made and passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for more effectual preventing Frauds and Abuses in the public Revenues; for preventing Frauds in the Salt Duties, and for giving Relief for Salt used in the curing of Salmon and Cod Fish, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, exported from that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; for enabling the Insurance Companies to plead the General Issue in Actions brought against them; and for securing the Stamp-duties upon Policies of Insurance: And in case the said Goods or Commodities, respectively mentioned or specified in such Permits, shall be removed from and out of the respective Stocks of the Person or Persons taking out such Permits, within the Time expressed and limited therein, and the same shall not, within the Time limited and expressed in such Permit, be actually delivered and received into the Stock of the Person or Persons to whom the same are mentioned in such Permit to be sent, then, and in every such Case, all such Goods and Commodities so removed and sent away as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be Goods or Commodities removed or removing without Permit.

Time they shall be in Force, &c.

Penalty on not removing such Goods agreeable to the Permits, &c.

Act 11 Geo. I.

XXVIII. Provided always nevertheless, and it is hereby further enacted, That, in case the said exciseable Goods or Commodities shall, by any unavoidable Accident or Necessity, be delayed, and thereby be prevented from being delivered into the Stock or Stocks of the Persons to whom such Goods shall be sent within the Time limited and expressed in such Permit, that then, in every such Case, the Court or Jurisdiction, where any Information shall be brought for the Condemnation of any such Seizure, shall, upon Proof of such unavoidable Accident or Necessity, direct the Goods or Commodities so seized to be restored to the Owner or Claimer thereof; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

In case of unavoidable Delay in delivering such Goods, the same not to be forfeited.

'XXIX. And whereas Persons dealing in or selling of Spirituous Liquors, British or foreign Sweets, 'Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, or Cocoa Nuts, or some one of them, and who are respectively under the 'Survey of the Officer of Excise or Inland Duties, do frequently bring Goods and Commodities, chargeable with Excise or Inland Duties, into their respective Warehouses, Shops, Cellars, Vaults, and other 'Places by them made use of for keeping the same, without having given Notice thereof to the proper 'Officer under whose Survey such Persons respectively then are, and without producing to such Officer, 'or leaving with him the authentic Permit or Certificate that accompanied the said Goods or Commodities, and, in order to prevent the Officers of Excise from seizing the same, do fraudulently mix or 'mingle the said Goods or Commodities in and with other Goods and Commodities then in Stock in such 'Warehouse, Shop, Cellar, Vault, or other Place;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Officer or Officers of Excise shall discover and find any Increase in the Stock or Stocks of any Dealer in or Seller of any of the said Commodities, over and above the Quantity of each respective Sort or Denomination which the Officer found in such Dealer's or Seller's Custody at the Time of the last preceding Survey upon such Dealer or Seller, such Increase, whether mixed or mingled, or unmixed or unmingled, shall be deemed and taken to be made by a Commodity for which no Duty has been paid, and which had been privately brought in by such Dealer or Seller without Permit or Certificate; and so much of the said respective Stock or Stocks as shall be found increased shall be forfeited and lost, and a Quantity equal to the increased Quantity shall and may be seized and taken, by the Officer or Officers of Excise who shall discover the same, from and out of any Part of the said Stock or Stocks then in the Possession of the Person or Persons where the same shall be found; and the Person or Persons in whose Stock such Increase shall be discovered and found, shall also lose and forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds.

If any Officer shall find any Increase in the Stock of any Dealer in Spirituous Liquors, Coffee, Tea, &c. since his last Survey, such Increase shall be forfeited, and also 20*l.*

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Increase so discovered as aforesaid, shall be found in the Stock or Stocks of any Dealer or Seller of British made Spirituous Liquors, the same shall not be forfeited, if the Owner thereof shall make it appear that such Increase was made by mixing Water with and amongst some of his said Stock of British made Spirituous Liquors, in the Presence of the Officer of Excise or the Division or Place where such Increase shall be found; any Thing in this Act before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

British Spirits, in a certain Case, not liable to such Forfeiture.

'XXXI. And whereas by an Act, passed in the Second Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for more effectually preventing the excessive Use of Spirituous Liquors for Home Consumption, by 'laying additional Duties upon Spirits made in Great Britain, or imported into the same: and for better regulating and encouraging the Exportation of British made Spirits; and for securing the Payment of the Duties 'upon Spirituous Liquors; it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That to prevent Distillers, who made 'Spirits for Exportation, from fraudulently removing Wash, Low Wines, or Spirits, the Officers of 'Excise should from Time to Time make a Charge from the apparent Decrease of the Wash of any such 'Distiller or Distillers, except such Decrease did really and truly arise from Accident: And whereas the 'Officers of Excise are prevented from making true Charges upon Decreases in the Wash of such Distillers, for Want of some certain Rule for ascertaining the true Proportion of Spirits that ought to be 'produced from a certain Quantity of Wash: Now, for the better enabling such Officers to make true 'Charges on the apparent Decreases of Wash discovered at the Stillhouse or Stillhouses of every Distiller 'or Distillers making Spirits for Exportation,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and

Recital of 2 Geo. III. Cap. 5.

Distillers of Spirits for Exportation to produce to the Officer a Quantity of Spirits in Proportion to the Wash found in their Custody; or they shall be charged for all the Wash missing.

after the twentieth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, every Distiller and Distillers who, at any Time between the first Day of October and the first Day of June, in each Year, shall make or distil Spirits for Exportation, shall, for every six Gallons of Wash, within the Time aforesaid found in his Custody, produce to the Sight of the Officer or Officers of Excise at least one Gallon of Spirits; and that every Distiller and Distillers who, at any Time between the first Day of June and the first Day of October, in each Year, shall make or distil Spirits for Exportation, shall, for every seven Gallons of Wash, within the Time last aforesaid found in his Custody, produce to the Sight of the Officer or Officers of Excise at least one Gallon of Spirits; such Spirits to be in each Case of the Strength of one to six under Hydrometer Proof: And that in every Case where the Produce of the Spirits, extracted by any such Distiller or Distillers within those respective Times, shall fall short of the Proportions before mentioned, every such Distiller and Distillers shall be, and he and they is and are hereby chargeable with, and shall pay Duty for every Gallon of such Wash, which, within the respective Times aforesaid, shall be missing, over and above the said six Gallons and seven Gallons respectively, at the same Rate as the Duty is chargeable and payable upon the Decrease of Wash discovered at the Still-houses of Distillers who distil Low Wines and Spirits for Home Consumption; and the Officers of Excise are hereby required, in such Cases, to make the presumptive Charges, as well for the Low Wines as also for the Spirits, upon every Gallon of Wash respectively so missing as aforesaid, in like Manner as Distillers working for Home Consumption are now charged upon Decreases of Wash; which said Duties on the said Low Wines and Spirits, so to be charged as aforesaid, shall be paid by every such Distiller or Distillers, at the respective Times, and in the same Manner, and under the like Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as the Duties charged on Distillers who distil for Home Consumption are now made payable; any Thing in the said before-recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Six Gallons per Ton to be allowed for Waste in rectifying or compounding Spirits for Exportation.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twentieth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, when any Distiller or Distillers of Spirits for Exportation shall take out any Quantity of Spirits from the Warehouse or Warehouses wherein the same were locked up, in order to have those Spirits rectified or compounded, before the same are exported, as by the said before-recited Act is permitted, such Distiller or Distillers shall, in Consideration of Waste, be allowed six Gallons in every Ton of such Spirits so to be rectified or compounded, and so after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; which Allowance of six Gallons in every Ton of Spirits so rectified or compounded, is in full Compensation for all Waste, Loss, or Damage whatsoever (except in Cases of unavoidable Accidents, which shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise); and if any Decrease shall at any Time appear in the Quantity of Spirits so taken out by any such Distiller or Distillers to be rectified or compounded, except such as can or may be accounted for by the Allowance aforesaid, every such Distiller and Distillers shall be charged, and the Officers of Excise are hereby required to charge him, her, or them, for all the Spirits so found to be decreased, and not properly accounted for, with double the Duties such Spirits would have been charged with if the same had been made for Home Consumption; which said Charge of double Duty, so to be made as aforesaid, shall be made up by the proper Officer at the End of every three Months, and the Duty so charged shall be paid by every such Distiller and Distillers, within three Weeks after the Expiration of such three Months respectively; which said double Duty shall be sued for, recovered, and levied, in such Manner as the Duties upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, are by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second (intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service and Purveyance; and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof), or by any other Law now in Force, relating to the Revenue of Excise on Beer, Ale, or other Liquors, are directed to be recovered and levied.

All Decrease in the Quantity above that Proportion to be charged with double Duty.

After July 20, 1781, no Spirits made for Exportation shall be delivered out of the Warehouses for Home Consumption.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said twentieth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, Spirits made for Exportation shall not, in any Case whatever, be delivered out of the Warehouse or Warehouses wherein the same shall have been lodged and secured, to be used for Home Consumption; any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

'XXXIV. And whereas, notwithstanding the many Laws that have from Time to Time been made for 'securing the Duties on Low Wines and Spirits, and for preventing the private Distillation thereof, evil-'minded Persons do privately distil large Quantities of Low Wines and Spirits, and do secretly dispose 'of the same to Rectifiers, and to other Persons, to the great Injury of the Revenue, and of the fair 'Trader: Now, for the more effectually putting a Stop to such fraudulent Practices,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, every Person who shall make or distil any Low Wines or Spirits, whether for Sale or not for Sale, shall be deemed and taken, and is hereby declared to be a common Distiller for Sale, and is hereby required to enter his, her, and their Still and Stills, and all other Vessels and Utensils by him, her, or them, made use of for the making or keeping of Wash, Low Wines, or Spirits, at the Office of Excise next to the Place where any such Persons shall then inhabit; and shall be liable to be charged with, and shall pay, for all Low Wines and Spirits by them made, the several Rates and Duties of Excise charged by the several Acts for laying Duties upon Low Wines and Spirits, and shall be subject to the Survey of the Officers of Excise, and to the several Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures, imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force in anywise relating to Distillers.

After Aug. 1, 1781, every Person who shall distil Low Wines or Spirits, shall be deemed a common Distiller, and shall enter his Stills, &c. and pay Duty as such.

All Persons, after Aug. 1, 1781, having any Wash fit for distilling of Low

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, every Person making or keeping any Wash prepared or fit for distilling of Low Wines and Spirits, and having in his, her, or their Custody, any Still or Stills, shall be deemed and taken to be, and is hereby declared to be, a common Distiller for Sale, and liable Wines, &c. or any Still, in their Custody, shall be deemed Common Distillers.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person, after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty one, shall make Use of any Vessel, Wash-batch, or other Utensil, nor any Room or Place for the making, brewing, or keeping of Wash made from Melasses, Sugar, Corn, or Grain respectively, or from any of the said Materials mixed together, or from any of them mixed with any other Material or Ingredient whatsoever, for the Distillation of Low Wines and Spirits, without first giving Notice thereof at the next Office within the Limits of which he or they do inhabit, upon Pain to forfeit for every Vessel, Wash-batch, or other Utensil, Room, or Place, so made Use of without Notice as aforesaid, the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

No Person, after Aug. 1, 1781, to use any Vessel or Place for making Wash for Low Wines, &c. without giving Notice at the next Office, on Penalty of 50 l.

'XXXVII. And whereas the Penalties already provided against the receiving or buying of British made 'Spirituous Liquors from the Persons who privately distil those Liquors, have, by Experience, been 'found ineffectual, and not sufficient to restrain or prevent such fraudulent Practices, in regard that the Du-'ties defrauded often do amount to more than the Penalty that can be incurred, whereby evil minded Per-'sons have been rather encouraged than deterred from such Practices, to the great Diminution of the 'Revenue upon British made Spirituous Liquors, and to the great Discouragement and Loss of the fair 'Trader:' For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, if any Person who shall either make, distil, rectify, or compound, any British made Spirituous Liquors for Sale, or who shall sell or deal in any Sort of Spirituous Liquors, shall receive or buy, or procure or employ any Person to receive or buy for him, her, or them, or for his, her, or their Use, any British made Spirituous Liquors (except at the public Sales of such British made Spirituous Liquors as have been condemned, and are sold under the Direction of the Commissioners of Excise), of any Person or Persons other than a Maker, Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirituous Liquors for Sale, over the outward Door of whose Stillhouse, Storehouse, Warehouse, Shop, Cellar, Vault, or other Place, by him, her, or them respectively made Use of for the making or keeping of British made Spirituous Liquors, shall be painted the Words, Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirituous Liquors (as the Case shall be), as by an Act, made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for more effectually preventing Frauds by private Distillers, and for the better securing the Duties on Low Wines and Spirits), is directed and prescribed; every such Person so offending shall forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

If any Distiller, or Dealer in Spirituous Liquors, shall buy or receive any British Spirits from any Person not having the Words Distiller, Rectifier, &c. painted, agreeable to 19 Geo. III. Cap. 50. (except at public Sales of condemned Spirits) he shall forfeit 500 l.

XXXVIII. Provided always, That such Offender, who shall be prosecuted for the said Penalty of five hundred Pounds by this Act given, shall not be again prosecuted for the same Offence by any former Act; and that such Offender, who shall be prosecuted for the Penalty given by any former Act, shall not be prosecuted again for the same Offence by virtue of this present Act, or any Thing herein contained.

Proviso.

XXXIX. And for the more effectual Discovery of such Offenders, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Person or Persons who shall have delivered or sold any British made Spirituous Liquors to any such Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of British made Spirituous Liquors, or to any such Dealer in Spirituous Liquors, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said before-recited Act of the nineteenth Year of his present Majesty, shall, before any Information has been lodged against him, her, or them, for such Offence, discover and inform against the Person or Persons who received or bought, or who procured or employed any other to receive or buy for him, her, or them, such British made Spirituous Liquors as aforesaid, every such Person, so discovering and informing, shall thereupon be discharged and indemnified from all Penalties to which, at the Time of such Information given, he might be liable, for or by reason of such his own Offence.

If the Seller of any such Spirituous Liquors shall, before any Information has been lodged against him, inform against the Buyer, he shall himself be indemnified.

'XL. And whereas, by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament (intituled, An Act for granting to 'his Majesty additional Duties upon Malt, and upon Low Wines and Spirits made for Home Consumption, and 'upon Foreign Spirits imported into Great Britain, and upon the Produce of the said several Duties; and for grant-'ing a Duty on Licences to be taken out by all Persons trading in, vending, or selling of, Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate), 'certain Allowances were directed to be made and paid to common Brewers and Makers of Beer and Ale 'for Sale, in Manner as in and by the said Act is particularly mentioned and prescribed: And whereas the 'Payment of those Allowances, at the Times and in the Manner therein directed, have been found very 'inconvenient and burthensome, and the Persons intitled to such Allowances are thereby greatly delayed 'in receiving the same;' for Remedy thereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty one, the several Rules and Directions, in the said Act prescribed for Payment of the said Allowances, shall cease, and be no longer observed; any Thing in the said Act notwithstanding.

When the Allowance on each Barrel of Beer or Ale brewed by the common Brewer shall be made.

Allowance, so to be made and set off as aforesaid, the respective Commissioners of Excise are hereby authorised to make and allow accordingly.

The Money so allowed to the common Brewer how to be replaced.

XLII. This Act not to abridge the Powers of the Excise Officers.

XLIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to take away or lessen any of the Powers or Authorities heretofore given to the Officers of Excise, and for the Inland Duties, by any Law or Laws now in Force relating to the said Duties.

All the Powers, &c. granted by former Acts relating to the Revenue of Excise upon Beer, and other Liquors, shall be applied in executing this Act, Penalty on assaulting Officers in executing this Act.

XLV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall assault, resist, oppose, molest, or hinder, any Officer or Officers of Excise in the due Execution of the Powers or Authorities given or granted to such Officer or Officers by this Act, every Person or Persons so doing shall forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied,

XLVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, imposed by this Act, shall be sued for, recovered, or mitigated by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, is or may be sued for, recovered, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, respectively; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

Judgments of Commissioners of Excise, or Justices of Peace, in Condemnation of exciseable Goods, shall be as final as any such Judgment in the Exchequer.

XLVII. And be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Judgments of the Commissioners of Excise, or Justices of the Peace within their respective Jurisdictions, for the Condemnation of any Commodities, Goods, or Effects, seized as forfeited under this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Duties of Excise, or other Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, shall be, and shall be deemed and taken to be, as final and conclusive, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as any Judgment for the Condemnation of any Commodities, Goods, or Effects given in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer.

Judgments of Commissioners, &c. liable to Appeal in certain Cases.

XLVIII. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That such Judgments of the Commissioners of Excise, and Justices of the Peace respectively, shall be subject and liable to Appeal in all Cases in which any Appeal is by any Act or Acts of Parliament given or allowed; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Limitation of Actions.

And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, at any Time or Times, be sued or prosecuted for any Act or Thing by him or them done or executed by virtue or in pursuance of this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Duties of Excise, or Inland Duties, such Action or Prosecution shall be commenced within the Space of three Months next after the Act or Thing done, and which shall be sued in the proper County; and such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in such Action or Suit, shall discontinue his or their Action, or be nonsuited, or Judgment shall be given against him or them on Demurrer or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

Persons sued in executing this or any other Act relating to Excise Duties, may plead the General Issue, and recover treble Costs.

'L. And whereas by an Act made in this present Session of Parliament (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an additional Duty upon the Produce of the several Duties under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Excise in Great Britain), it was, amongst other Things, provided, That nothing in the said Act contained should extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with the additional Duty thereby granted the Produce or Amount of the Duties upon Candles made in Great Britain: And whereas by one other Act, made in the nineteenth Year of his said present Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon the Produce of the several Duties under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in Great Britain), it was, amongst other Things, provided, That nothing in the said Act contained should extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with the additional Duty thereby granted the Produce or Amount of the Duties payable for Tallow Candles: And whereas it was the Meaning and Intention of the said before-recited Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, that the Exemption of the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum should extend only to Tallow Candles made in Great Britain, in like Manner as the Exemption by the said

'said Act of the nineteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign was provided and made, and the Word 'Tallow was, through Mistake, omitted to be inserted in the said Proviso:' Now, for correcting and amending the said Mistake, be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That by the Word Candles in the said Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, was meant Tallow Candles only; and that from and after the passing of this present Act, the Produce and Amount of the Duties on all Candles made in Great Britain (except Tallow Candles), shall be liable to, and shall be charged with, the said additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum, imposed by the said Act of this present Session of Parliament; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Clause for rectifying a Mistake in Cap. 17. of this present Session.

CAP. LVI.

An Act for granting to his Majesty an additional Duty upon Almanacks printed on one Side of any one Sheet or Piece of Paper; and for allowing a certain annual Sum out of the said Duty to each of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, in lieu of the Money heretofore paid to the said Universities, by the Company of Stationers of the City of London, for the Privilege of printing Almanacks.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS Almanacks, printed on one Side only of any one Sheet or Piece of Paper, are not 'subject to the same Duties as are imposed on other printed Almanacks, by reason whereof great 'Evasions have been practised, to the Injury of the fair Trader, and the Decrease of his Majesty's Re'venue;' therefore we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for every Almanack or Calendar, for one particular Year, or for any Time less than a Year, printed on one Side only of any one Sheet or Piece of Paper, over and above the Duties now charged thereon, an additional Duty of Two-pence; and for every Almanack or Calendar so printed, and made to serve for several Years, the said additional Duty for every such Year.

From the passing of this Act, an additional Duty of 2 d. to be paid for every Sheet Almanack printed in Great-Britain.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for the better and more effectual levying, collecting, and paying the said additional Duty herein-before granted, the same shall be under the Government, Care, and Management, of the Commissioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties charged on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and impowered to employ the necessary Officers under them for that Purpose; and to cause such new Stamps to be provided to denote the said Duty as shall be requisite in that Behalf; and to do all other Things necessary to be done for putting this Act in Execution with relation to the said Duty herein-before granted, in the like, and in as full and ample Manner, as they, or the major Part of them, are authorised to put in Execution any former Law concerning stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper.

New Duty to be under the Management of the Commissioners for Stamps.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, to prevent the Multiplication of Stamps or Marks upon such Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which Almanacks are to be printed, and upon which several Duties are by several Acts of Parliament imposed, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, instead of the distinct Stamps or Marks directed to be provided to denote the several Duties on such Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which Almanacks are to be printed, to cause one new Stamp or Mark to be provided, to denote the said several Duties.

Commissioners may provide one new Stamp for all the several Duties;

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Stamp or Mark, as the said Commissioners are hereby directed and authorised to provide and use, shall and may be altered and renewed in such Manner as any other Stamps or Marks on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, are, by any former Law relating to stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, directed to be altered and renewed.

and may alter the same.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Almanack or Calendar shall be printed in such Manner, that some Part of such Printing shall be upon the Stamp or Mark which shall, in pursuance of this Act, be impressed upon the Paper whereon the same shall be printed; and if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the passing of this Act, print, or cause to be printed, any Almanack or Calendar otherwise than as aforesaid, or shall sell, or expose to Sale, any such Almanack, before the paper whereupon such Almanack shall be printed shall have been duly marked, and upon which the Stamp or Mark herein-before directed to be impressed, at the Time of such Sale, shall be plain and visible, that then every Person so offending shall, for every Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds, to be levied and applied as is directed by the several Stamp Laws now in Force.

All Almanacks to be printed in such Manner that Part of the Printing shall be on the Stamp.

Penalty.

'VI. And whereas great Frauds are committed by Persons affixing the Stamps on Almanacks, which 'they pretend have been cut off from such Almanacks, for the greater Convenience of framing or binding 'the same;' be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Almanack or Calendar shall be sold, or exposed to Sale, with the Stamp affixed thereto in any other Manner than as the same shall have been impressed upon the Paper at the Stamp-office, that then every such Almanack or Calendar shall be deemed an unstamped Almanack, and the Person or Persons selling, or exposing the same to Sale, shall be subject and liable to the same Penalty as if they had sold, or exposed to Sale, an unstamped Almanack.

Penalty on selling Almanacks with the Stamp affixed thereto otherwise than was done at the Stamp-office.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to charge any Calendar or perpetual Almanack, or any other Calendar

Perpetual Almanacks not to be charged with more than three Years Duty.

dar or Almanack, with more than the Duty that would be payable by this Act, in case such Almanack was made for three Years only.

All Provisions, Penalties, &c. prescribed or inflicted by former Acts relating to Stamp-duties, shall be in Force in Execution of this Act

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Powers, Provisions, Articles, Clauses, Penalties, Forfeitures, Distribution of Penalties and Forfeitures, and all other Matters and Things, prescribed, inflicted, or appointed, by any former Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Stamp-duties on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and not hereby altered, shall be in full Force and Effect with relation to the Rates and Duties hereby imposed, and shall be applied and put in Execution for the raising, levying, collecting, and securing the said Rates and Duties, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had severally and respectively been herein enacted with relation to the Rates and Duties hereby imposed.

Penalty on Persons counterfeiting any Stamp, or selling any Almanack, &c. marked with a counterfeit Stamp.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person, from and after the passing of this Act, shall counterfeit or forge, or procure to be counterfeited or forged, any Stamp or Mark to resemble any Stamp or Mark directed or allowed to be used by this or any other Act of Parliament; or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same, with an Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of the said Duty hereby granted; or shall utter, vend, or sell, any Paper or Almanack, with such counterfeit Stamp or Mark, knowing the same to be counterfeit; or shall privately or fraudulently use any Stamp or Mark, directed or allowed to be used by this or any other Act of Parliament relating to the Stamp-duties, with Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of the said Duty; every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Preamble.

'X. And whereas the Power of granting a Liberty to print Almanacks, and other Books, was heretofore supposed to be an inherent Right in the Crown: And whereas the Crown hath, by different Charters, under the Great Seal, granted to the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, among other Things, the Privilege of printing Almanacks: And whereas the Universities did demise to the Company of Stationers of the City of London, their Privileges of printing and vending Almanacks and Calendars, and have received an annual Sum of one thousand Pounds and upwards, as a Consideration for such Privilege: And whereas the Money so received by them has been laid out and expended in promoting different Branches of Literature and Science, to the great Increase of Religion and Learning, and the general Benefit and Advantage of these Realms: And whereas the Privilege or Right of printing Almanacks has been, by a late Decision at Law, found to have been a common Right, over which the Crown had no Controul, and consequently the Universities no Power to demise the same to any particular Person or Body of Men, whereby the Payments so made to them by the Company of Stationers have ceased and been discontinued;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, there shall be issued, paid, and applied, in every Year, out of the Monies which shall arise by the Duty herein-before granted, the Sums of Money following, to the two Universities of Oxford and Cambridge; that is to say, the Sum of five hundred Pounds to the University of Oxford, and the Sum of five hundred Pounds to the University of Cambridge; which said several and respective Sums of Money shall be, and are hereby charged upon the Duty herein-before granted, and shall be paid thereout yearly and every Year, at the two usual Feasts; that is to say, the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist, and the Birth of our Lord Christ; the first Payment to be made, on the Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ after passing this Act, by the Receiver General of his Majesty's Stamp-duties, free and clear of all Fees, Dues, Duties, Taxes, and Deductions whatsoever, unto the Chancellors, Masters, and Scholars, of the said Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and to be received by the Hands of the Vice-chancellor of each University respectively, or by some Person or Persons duly authorised by each respective Vice chancellor, under his Hand, to receive the same, to and for the sole Use and Benefit of each of the said Universities; and the Receipt of the Vice-chancellor of each University, or of the Person or Persons duly authorised, as aforesaid, by him to receive the same, shall be a sufficient Receipt to the said Receiver General of the Stamp-duties, and shall be allowed by the Auditor and Auditors of the Imprest, and all other Persons concerned in passing his Accounts, as a full and sufficient Discharge for the making such Payments out of the aforesaid Duty.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duty herein-before granted shall be paid from Time to Time into the Hands of the Receiver General for the Time being of the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper; who shall keep a separate and distinct Account of the said Duty, and pay the same (the necessary Charges of raising, paying, and accounting for the same, and also the Sum of one thousand Pounds, herein-before directed to be paid to the two Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, being first thereout deducted), into the Receipt of the Exchequer, at such Time, and in such Manner, as any former Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, are directed to be paid; and that in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt shall be provided a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said Duty, and paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid, shall be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatsoever; and the said Money, so paid into the said Receipt of the Exchequer, shall be carried to and made a Part of the Fund commonly called The Sinking Fund and carried to the Sinking Fund.

Persons sued in Execution of this Act, may plead the General Issue, and recover treble Costs.

XII. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time or Times be sued or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Matter or Thing in this Act contained, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

CAP. LVIII.

An Act for rendering more effectual so much of an Act, made in the tenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for appropriating a Fund established by an Act, made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, "for granting to his Majesty additional "Duties on certain foreign Linens imported into this Kingdom; and for establishing a Fund "for the encouraging of the raising and dressing of Hemp and Flax," as relates to the distributing and paying the Proportion of the Fund thereby appropriated for the Encouragement of the Growth of Hemp and Flax in that Part of Great Britain called England, by applying a Sum, not exceeding fifteen thousand Pounds per Annum, out of the said Arrears and Duties, to the Purposes aforesaid, for a Time limited.

Preamble. Recital of 7 Geo. III. C. p. 58.

' WHEREAS by an Act, made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, ' An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties on certain foreign Linens imported into this King- ' dom; and for establishing a Fund for the encouraging of the raising and dressing of Hemp and Flax), it is ' enacted, That, from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven, ' there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several ' additional Rates and Duties following; (that is to say),

' For every Ell of foreign Linen, commonly called Packing Canvas, Spruce Elbing, or Queensborough ' Canvas, which shall be imported into Great Britain, the Sum of one Farthing:

' And for every Ell of foreign Linen, commonly called Dutch Barras, and Hessin-Canvas, which shall ' be imported into Great Britain, the Sum of one Halfpenny; and after those Rates for any greater or ' lesser Quantity of such Goods respectively, over and above all other Duties imposed thereon by any for- ' mer Act or Acts of Parliament:

' And that, from and after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven, all ' foreign Lawns imported into Great Britain shall be rated and entered as Silesia Lawns, and shall pay ' Duty accordingly; and that, from and after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and

' and

'and sixty-seven, there shall also be raised, levied, collected, and paid, for every Yard of foreign Lawn 'bleached in Holland, commonly called Holland whited Lawn, which shall be imported into Great Britain, the Sum of one Penny, and after that Rate for any greater or less Quantity, over and above all 'other Duties imposed thereon by any former Act or Acts of Parliament: And it is by the said Act further 'enacted, That the Money arising by the said several Rates and Duties should from Time to Time be 'respectively paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches 'of the public Revenue; and that a Sum, not exceeding fifteen thousand Pounds per Annum, arising from 'the said Duties, shall be kept apart in the said Receipt, as a Fund for the Encouragement of raising and 'dressing Hemp and Flax in this Kingdom, in such Way and Manner as Parliament shall thereafter di-'rect; and that the Remainder of the said several Duties should be reserved in the said Receipt for the 'future Disposition of Parliament: And whereas by another Act, made in the tenth Year of the Reign 'of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for appropriating a Fund established by an Act, made in the seventh 'Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties "on certain foreign Linens imported into this Kingdom; and for establishing a Fund for the encouraging of the "raising and dressing of Hemp and Flax)," it is enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to his Majesty, 'his Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time, and at all Times thereafter, by his or their Royal Sign 'Manual for that Purpose, and countersigned by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the 'Time being, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, to direct, order, 'limit, and appoint the Distribution and Payment of the Sum of eight thousand Pounds per Annum, from 'the Commencement of the said Act of the seventh of his present Majesty, and annually afterwards; or 'of eight fifteenth Parts of the Sum and Sums of Money which have already grown due, and been kept 'apart, and shall thereafter grow due, and be kept apart, for the Encouragement of raising and dressing 'Hemp and Flax in this Kingdom, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act of the seventh of his pre-'sent Majesty; and the remaining seven Fifteenths of the said Fund, appropriated for the Encourage-'ment of the raising and dressing of Hemp and Flax in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, is put 'under the Management of the Trustees and Commissioners for encouraging and promoting Fishings, 'Manufactures, and Improvements, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland: And whereas the eight 'fifteenth Parts of the said Fund allotted for the Encouragement of the Growth of Hemp and Flax, in 'that Part of Great Britain called England, hath not hitherto been paid or applied for the Purposes for 'which the same was intended: And whereas there is now remaining in his Majesty's Exchequer the 'Sum of forty-four thousand seven hundred and nineteen Pounds, nineteen Shillings, and Five-pence, 'reserved there for encouraging the raising and dressing Hemp and Flax in that Part of Great Britain 'called England, as the proportional Part directed to be applied by the said Act of the tenth Year of his 'Majesty's Reign, of the additional Duties on certain foreign Linens imported into this Kingdom, which 'were granted by an Act of the seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign: And whereas, if the said Act of 'the tenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, so far as respects the Distribution and Payment of the 'said Arrears, and of the said eight fifteenth Parts of the said Fund appropriated to that Part of Great 'Britain called England, was altered, and the Application of the said Fund put under the Management 'and Direction of the Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, in the Manner hereafter directed, it 'would more fully answer the Intention of the Legislature in passing the said Acts:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act, of the tenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, as respects the Direction, ordering, limiting, and appointing, of the Distribution and Payment of the said Sum of eight thousand Pounds per Annum, or of eight fifteenth Parts of the Sum and Sums of Money which have already grown due, and been kept apart, and shall hereafter grow due, and be kept apart, for the Encouragement of raising and dressing Hemp and Flax in this Kingdom by his Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act of the tenth of his present Majesty, shall be, and is hereby repealed.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament in the eighth and ninth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the lessening the Duty upon Tin and Pewter exported, and granting an Equivalent for the same by a Duty upon Drugs; after reciting that, Whereas by an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, A Subsidy granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandizes exported and imported, it was provided, That all Drugs, imported directly from the Place of their Growth in English built Shipping, be rated one third Part of what is charged in the Book of Rates, and no more; it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That the Subsidy to be received for all Drugs imported directly from the Place of their Growth in English built Shipping, shall be according to the full Value on the respective Species enumerated in the Book of Rates, and not according to the said Abatement; and for all Drugs otherwise imported, Treble such full Value: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether Drugs, the Growth of Russia, imported from certain Ports in Russia, which were not subject to, and under the Dominion of, the Russian Empire, at the Time of passing the said recited Act, can be now imported from such Ports upon Payment of the single Duty;' for obviating which Doubts, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the twentieth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, all Drugs of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture, of any Part of the Dominions of Russia, which shall be laden and shipped at any Port or Place subject to and within the said Russian Dominions, and imported from thence in British built Shipping into this Kingdom, shall be deemed and taken to be imported directly from the Place of their Growth, Production, or Manufacture, and shall be liable to and pay Duties accordingly; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recital of an Act 3 and 9 Gul. III.

After July 20, 1781, all Drugs the Production of Russia, imported from thence in British built Shipping, shall be deemed to be imported from the Place of their Growth, &c.

'II. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the further Improvement of his Majesty's Revenue of Customs; and for the Encouragement of Officers making Seizures; and for the Prevention of the clandestine Running of Goods into any Part of his Majesty's Dominions; it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs to cause all Ships, Vessels, and Boats, and all Goods, of what Kind soever they may be (excepting only such Vessels, Boats, and Goods, as are by Law liable to be burnt), which shall be seized by any Officers of the Customs for unlawful Importation, or for Nonpayment of Duties, or for any other Cause of Forfeiture, and condemned according to Law, to be sold publicly to the best Bidder, at such Places as the said Commissioners shall think proper; and all and every Officer who shall seize such Goods, shall, for his and their Encouragement, be allowed by the said Commissioners one Moiety of the neat Produce arising by the Sale of such Seizure, after the deducting the Charges of Condemnation and Sale from the Whole; and the said Commissioners shall cause the other Moiety thereof to be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, in lieu of his Majesty's Share thereof (excepting in those Cases which are otherwise provided for by the said Act): And whereas it is by the said Act provided and further enacted, That if the Produce of any particular Seizure, sold in pursuance of the said Act, shall not be sufficient to answer the Expences of Condemnation and Sale, or if, upon the Trial of any Seizure, a Verdict shall be given for the Claimant, and the

'Ship or Goods shall not be condemned, in either of those Cases it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs to order the Charges attending the seizing and prosecuting such Ship 'or Goods, to be paid out of any Branch of the Revenue of the Customs which is by Law applicable to 'the Payment of Incidents: And whereas it is not reasonable that such Part of the public Revenue, which 'is by Law applicable to the Payment of Incidents, should be burthened with the Expences of prosecuting 'such Seizures, but, on the contrary, that such Charges and Expences, and other Law Charges, and 'Expences of Management, where it may be judged necessary by the Commissioners of his Majesty's 'Customs, should be defrayed out of the Produce arising by the Sale of Seizures which are condemned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Ship, Vessel, Boat, or Goods, shall be seized by any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs, which are by Law liable on Condemnation to be burnt, or otherwise destroyed, or where the Produce arising by the Sale of any particular Seizure shall not be sufficient to answer the Expences of seizing, prosecuting, or condemning the same; or if upon any Trial a Verdict shall be given for the Claimant, or the Ship, Vessel, Boat, or Goods, so seized, shall not be condemned; in either of those Cases, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, if they think proper, to order the Charges arising by the Condemnation and Sale, and by the Seizure and Prosecution of such Ships, Vessels, and Boats, or Goods, whether they shall be condemned or not, and all Manner of Law Bills, and other Charges of Management, to be paid out of his Majesty's Share of the Produce arising by the Sale of any Goods which have been, or may be seized and condemned, in like Manner as may now be done out of any other Branch of the Revenue of the Customs, which is by Law applicable to the Payment of Incidents; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Custom or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

How the Charges of Seizure, Condemnation, &c. shall be defrayed, of Vessels condemned to be burnt, &c.

'III. And whereas Orchillia Weed is very useful and necessary in the dying Manufactures, and, by reason of the present Hostilities, it cannot be now imported into this Kingdom directly from the Place of 'its Growth, in Ships navigated according to the Laws now in Force, without great Hazard and Expence to the Importers thereof: And whereas Cobalt is very necessary in Medicine and various Manufactures, and it is expedient at this Time to encourage the Importation thereof into this Kingdom:' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twentieth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, and during the present Hostilities with France, Spain, and the United Provinces, or either of them, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to import into any Part of Great Britain any Orchillia Weed and Cobalt, from any Port or Place whatsoever, in any British or Irish Ship or Vessel navigated according to Law, or in any foreign Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, navigated by foreign Seamen, without paying any Custom or Duty whatsoever for the same, so as a due Entry be first made thereof at the Custom-house belonging to the Port into which such Orchillia Weed and Cobalt shall be imported, in the same Manner and Form as was used and practised before the making of this Act, and so as the same shall be landed in the Presence of the proper Officer appointed for that Purpose, otherwise such Orchillia Weed and Cobalt shall be liable to the same Duties, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as if this Act had not been made; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Orchillia Weed and Cobalt may be imported, during the present Hostilities, in British or Irish Vessels, or in Neutral Vessels, without paying any Duty.

'IV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties, in the British Colonies and Plantations, granted by several Acts of Parliament; and also the Duties imposed by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament upon certain East India Goods exported from Great Britain; and for granting other Duties instead thereof; and for further encouraging, regulating, and securing several Branches of the Trade of this Kingdom, and the British Dominions in America; it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That all Sugars which shall be imported into Great Britain from any Part of the British Colonies or Plantations on the Continent of America, 'shall be deemed and taken to be French Sugars: And whereas the Colonies of Demerary and Essequibo, 'on the Continent of America, formerly under the Dominion of the States General of the United Provinces, have lately surrendered to his Majesty's Arms, and being now in his Possession, it is reasonable 'and expedient, for the Encouragement of the Sugar Planters in those Colonies, that Sugars of the 'Growth and Produce thereof should be deemed British Sugars:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the fourteenth Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, all Sugar, the Growth and Produce of the said Colonies of Demerary and Essequibo, shall be deemed and taken to be British Sugars, and shall and may be exported from thence, and imported into this Kingdom, upon Payment of the same Duties, and upon Exportation intitled to the same Drawback, as Sugars the Growth and Produce of any British Island in the West Indies; and shall in all Respects be subject and liable to the same Securities, Certificates, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as Sugars the Growth and Produce of the British Islands in the West Indies are subject and liable to by Law; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That until there shall be Officers of his Majesty's Customs appointed for that Purpose in the said Colonies of Demerary and Essequibo, it shall and may be lawful for the Naval Officer, or any other Officer appointed by the Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces in America, or the Commanding Officer of the Troops at those Colonies respectively, to take such Securities, and to grant such Certificates and Clearances, as by any Law in Force may be required for such Sugar, which shall be as valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as those taken and granted in the like Cases by his Majesty's Governors or the Officers of his Majesty's Customs in America.

Naval Officer, &c. impowered to take Securities, and grant Certificates, for such Sugar, until proper Officers of the Customs shall be appointed.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Sugars shall be imported into Great Britain from Demerary or Essequibo, or from any British Colony or Plantation in America, without the Certificate herein-before directed, and it shall be made appear, to the Satisfaction

'XXXVII. And whereas many evil-disposed Persons, to support their profligate Way of Life, have, by 'various subtle Stratagems, Threats, and Devices, fraudulently obtained divers Sums of Money, Goods, 'Wares, Merchandizes, Bonds, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, or other Securities for Money, to 'the great Injury of industrious Families, and to the manifest Prejudice of Trade and Credit;' be it enacted, That no Prisoner, who knowingly and designedly, by false Pretence or Pretences, shall have obtained, from any Person or Persons, Money, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, Bonds, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, or other Securities for Money, shall have or receive any Benefit or discharge by or under this Act; but the Justices, at any General or Quarter Session of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, before whom any such Prisoners shall be brought, upon due Proof of the Matter, made to their Satisfaction, shall remand such Prisoner to the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison from whence he or she shall have been brought; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons who, by false Pretences, have obtained Money, Goods, &c. excluded the Benefit of this Act.

And whereas many Debtors, for Rents of Lands, Messuages, Houses, or other Premises, 'have, with a fraudulent Intent to disappoint the Right of their respective Landlords, removed the Stock, 'Cattle, Furniture, Goods, or other Effects, which were subject and liable to be distrained for the Satis- 'faction of the said Rents;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Prisoner or Prisoners, who, in a secret, clandestine, or fraudulent Manner, shall have removed, or caused to be removed, within six Years before the passing of this Act, any such Stock, Cattle, Furniture, Goods, or Effects, of the Value of fifty Pounds, or upwards, which were subject and liable to be distrained by their respective Landlords, for or in Payment of such Rent or Rents, whereby such Landlord or Landlords shall have lost all or some Part of the Rent or Rents due to him, her, or them, as aforesaid, shall be discharged by or under this Act; but shall, on due Proof of the Matter as aforesaid, be remanded in Manner herein-before mentioned; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Person who, within six Years, shall have fraudulently removed Stock, Furniture, &c. liable to be distrained for Rent, shall be discharged by this Act.

'XXXIX. And whereas many Debtors have, with a View to defraud their Creditors, sold, transferred, 'conveyed, or assigned their Estate and Effects to some Person or Persons, subsequent to their being in 'Custody of Law, or imprisoned under some Process for Debt: And whereas such Sale, Transfer, Con- 'veyance, or Assignment, has been frequently made, to the infinite Prejudice of the fair and honest 'Creditor, though sufficient Proof could not be obtained to convict the Party of a fraudulent Design;' be it enacted, That whenever it shall be proved, by one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to the Satisfaction of the Court, to which any Prisoner shall be brought up, in order to obtain his or her Discharge, that such Prisoner has sold, transferred, conveyed, or assigned, to any Person or Persons, all or any Part of his Estate or Effects, subsequent to the Time of his Imprisonment, or of his being in Custody of Law, without just Cause for so doing, to be allowed by the Justices presiding in such Court as aforesaid; every such Debtor shall lose all the Benefits and Advantages that he might have otherwise claimed under the Authority of this Act, and shall not be intitled to his or her Discharge; and every such Sale, Transfer, Conveyance, or Assignment, is hereby declared to be null and void.

Any Person having sold or assigned any Part of his Estate or Effects, after being in Custody, with Design to defraud his Creditors, shall lose the Benefit of this Act.

XL. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison shall, and is hereby required to suffer, in the Day-time, any Person or Persons, desiring the same, to see and speak, in the Lodge, or some convenient Room in the said Prison, with any Prisoner or Prisoners, whose Names are inserted in the afore-mentioned List or Lists, or London Gazette, or other Newspapers, or any of them, or any Persons surrendering themselves pursuant to this Act; and also see, in the true and genuine Books of the said Prison, the Entries made of the Name or Names of such Prisoner or Prisoners, Debtor or Debtors, together with the Name or Names of the Person or Persons at whose Suit or Suits he, she, or they, are or were detained: And if any such Gaoler or Keeper shall neglect or refuse to comply with what is here above required, every such Gaoler or Keeper, who shall so offend in the Premises, shall forfeit and pay, to the Person so refused and aggrieved, the Sum of forty Pounds; to be recovered, with Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of the Courts at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed, by and in the Name or Names of the Person or Persons so refused and aggrieved.

Gaoler to permit the speaking in private to Prisoners, whose Names are inserted in the List, or Gazette, &c. and the examining original Books of Entries, &c. on Penalty of 40l. with Costs of Suit.

XLI. Provided always, and be it likewise enacted, That by an Adjudication by Force of this Act, no other Person or Persons who was or were Partner or Partners in Trade with any such Debtor at the Time of such Adjudication, or then stood bound, engaged with, or liable to, the Payment of any Debt with any such Debtor, or engaged in any Contract together with any such Debtor, shall be discharged from any such Debt or Demand; but every such other Person and Persons shall severally stand and be chargeable with, and liable to pay, such Debt and Debts, and to perform such Contracts, in like Manner as if no such Adjudication had been made.

Discharge of Debtor no Acquittal to his Partner or Sureties.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if any Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any Prison or Prisons, shall make, or cause to be made, any false Entries in any Book or Books belonging to any Prison or Gaol under his Care, or of which he is or was Gaoler, or shall prepare or keep, or cause to be prepared or kept, any false Book or Books, in order for any false or untrue Entry or Entries to be made therein; or shall insert in any List, to be delivered in as aforesaid, the Name or Names of any Person or Persons who was not set at large, or surrendered, or tendered to be surrendered, or in actual Custody as aforesaid (except as in the Oath of any such Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, shall be excepted), every such Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, shall, over and above the Penalties which he shall be liable to for every such Fraud, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds; to be recovered, with treble Costs of Suit, by and in the Name, and for the Use, of any Person or Persons who shall be prejudiced by any Entry, or such false Entries; which Penalties shall and may be recovered by Gaoler making false Entries in Prison Book or List to forfeit 500l. with treble Costs.

Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed.

And be it further enacted, That if any Debtor, being thereunto required by any Creditor, shall refuse to discover and declare the Trade or Occupation, and Habitation, or last Place of Abode, of the Person or Persons at whose Suit he or she is or was detained or charged in Custody; or, if any Prisoner being called for, and desired by any Creditor or Creditors, to come to the Lodge of the Prison in which any such Prisoner shall be confined, without some reasonable Cause being made appear to the contrary; every such Debtor, upon Proof being made thereof before the Justices at any General or Quarter Session of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, to be held as aforesaid, shall not have or receive any Benefit or Discharge by or under this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Justices may assemble at or near any County Gaol, and hold a Session there for Discharge of Prisoners.

'XLIV. And whereas there is but one Common or County Gaol for each of the respective Counties of 'York, Lincoln, Lancaster, and Durham, which said Counties are each of them divided into several Ridings 'or Divisions, all which have several Commissions of the Peace; and if the Gaolers of those Gaols be 'obliged to carry the Debtors, Prisoners therein, to the Quarter Session of each Riding or Division, the 'same will be a very great Charge, not only to such Gaolers, but also to the Prisoners, in those large 'Counties;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for two or more Justices of the Peace for any of the Ridings or Divisions in the respective Counties (or any other County or Counties where the Prisons are at a Distance from the Place where the Sessions are held), at the Common or County Gaol thereof respectively, or at some convenient Place near thereto, and they are hereby required to assemble and meet, and to hold Session there, by Adjournment from their respective Quarter Session, from Time to Time, for the Discharge of the respective Prisoners therein, according to the Powers, Limitations, and Directions of this Act.

The Justices for the District of Holland in Lincolnshire, may adjourn to the County Gaol, &c. for discharging Prisoners.

'XLV. And whereas the Division or District of Holland in the said County of Lincoln, is distant near 'forty Miles from the said County Gaol, and it is highly inconvenient and expensive for the Justices of the 'Peace acting for the said Division, to be obliged to travel to the said Gaol, for the sole Purpose of dis-'charging the Prisoners under the Powers by this Act given;' be it therefore enacted, That, for the several Purposes aforesaid, the Justices for the said Division or District of Holland may adjourn their original Sessions to the County Gaol, or some Place near thereunto; and that it may and shall be lawful for any two Justices of the Peace, acting either for the Parts of Lindsey, Kesteven, or Holland, to hold such adjourned Sessions for the sole Purpose of discharging such Prisoners; Notice of the Adjournment of such original Session being given by the Clerk of Sessions to such Justices, and who shall attend there to register the Proceedings of the said Court, so far as the same relate to, or affect the Discharge of any Prisoner detained for Debt in the Division of Holland, and claiming the Benefit of this Act.

Justices for the County of Surrey may assemble at the Town-hall of Southwark for administering Oaths, &c.

'XLVI. And whereas the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of Surrey, which 'shall happen after the passing of this Act, may be in the Country, and upwards of twenty Miles from 'any of the said Prisons;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for such Justices as shall be assembled at the General Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden for the County of Surrey, next after the passing of this Act, and they are hereby required forthwith to adjourn the said Session to the Town-hall in the Borough of Southwark, for the Purpose of administering the Oaths required to be taken and subscribed by this Act, by the several Gaolers within the said County, and for the Discharge of Prisoners or other Debtors, according to the Powers, Limitations, and Directions of this Act.

Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to discharge any Person seeking the Benefit of this Act, with respect to any Debt or Penalty with which he or she shall stand charged at the Suit of the Crown, or at the Suit of any Sheriff or other public Officer, upon any Bail Bond entered into for the Appearance of any Person prosecuted for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to his Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise, or Salt Duties, or either of them.

Determination of Justices to be final with respect to the Retention of any Debtor; unless the Debtor get rid of the Objections for which they refused his Discharge.

'XLIX. And whereas, under former Acts, Creditors have been put to great Expences and Trouble in 'attending every Session and Adjournment, during the whole Continuance of the Act, to oppose the 'Discharge of Debtors clearly excluded from any Benefit under the said respective Acts, but who, after 'having been before one Session heard, and refused a Discharge, to harass their Creditors, constantly 'gave fresh Notices for each subsequent Session and Adjournment of their intended Application to 'be discharged;' to remedy which, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases whatever, the Determination of the Justices in Session or Adjournment shall be final to all Intents and Purposes, unless the Debtor shall, during the Continuance of this Act, get rid of the Objection or Objections for which they refused his Discharge; and, that the same may be clear and certain, the Justices are hereby required to state the Objections why such Debtor's Discharge is refused by them; and, in all Cases whatever, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices, at any subsequent Session or Adjournment, upon Application from the Prisoner, upon due Proof on Oath made to them, by two or more credible Witnesses (which Oath they are hereby impowered to administer), of each Objection or Objections being removed, and on Proof of Notice served, at least ten Days previous to such Application, on the Creditor or Creditors who before opposed his Discharge, and of Notice likewise inserted in the Gazette, in

Justices, on Proof by two Witnesses of Ob-

Manner before directed by this Act, to order such Prisoner to be brought before them, and, if they shall then be of Opinion the said Debtor is intitled to the Benefit of this Act, to adjudge him or her intitled to the Benefit of this Act, and if a Prisoner, to order him or her to be discharged, he or she taking the Oath, and in all other Respects conforming to the Directions of this Act.

Justices being removed, &c. may discharge such Prisoner.

L. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That when any Creditor shall intend to oppose the Discharge of any Debtor, with whose Debt he is or was charged in Custody, at the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, he is hereby required to give four Days Notice of his Intention to oppose such Discharge to the Prisoner, or to leave such Notice in Writing with the Keeper or Gaoler of such Prison, in order that such Prisoner may be prepared to make his Defence; and in case no such Notice shall be given as aforesaid, previous to such Quarter Sessions, or such Adjournment thereof, and such Creditor shall appear to oppose his or her Discharge, and it shall happen that the Prisoner is remanded, then such Creditor shall pay to such Debtor the Expences of his Application and Attendance, in any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, as the Justices at such Sessions shall direct and allow.

Creditor intending to oppose the Discharge of a Prisoner, to give him four Days Notice thereof, and to one of the Secretaries of State, Copies of all Letters, &c. relative to their Civil and Military Affairs, &c.

'XXXV. And whereas by another Act, passed in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his present 'Majesty, intituled, An Act for establishing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of 'the East India Company, as well in India as in Europe, it was, among other Things, enacted, That for the 'Government of the Presidency of Fort William, in Bengal, there should be appointed a Governor Gene- 'ral, and Four Councillors, and that the whole Civil and Military Government of the said Presidency, 'and also the Ordering, Management, and Government, of all the Territorial Acquisitions and Revenues 'in the Kingdoms of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, should, during such Time as the Territorial Acquisi- 'tions and Revenues should remain in the Possession of the said United Company, be vested in the said 'Governor General and Council of the said Presidency of Fort William in Bengal; and also that the Go- 'vernor General and four First Councillors, appointed by the said Act, should each of them hold and 'continue in his and their respective Offices for and during the Term of five Years, from the Time of 'their Arrival at Fort William in Bengal, and taking upon them the Government of the said Presidency, 'and should not be removeable in the mean Time, except by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon 'Representation made by the Court of Directors for the said United Company for the Time being; and 'in case of the Avoidance of the Office of such Governor General by Death, Resignation, or Removal, 'his Place should, during the Remainder of the Term aforesaid, as often as the Case should happen, be 'supplied by the Person of the Council who shall stand next in Rank to such Governor General; and in 'case of the Death, Removal, Resignation, or Promotion, of any of the said Council, the Directors of 'the said United Company were thereby impowered, for and during the Remainder of the said Term of 'five Years, to nominate and appoint, by and with the Consent of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, 'to be signified as therein is mentioned, a Person to succeed to the Office so become vacant in the said 'Council; and until such Appointment should be made, all the Powers and Authorities vested in the 'Governor General and Council should rest and continue in, and be exercised and executed by, the Go- 'vernor General and Council remaining and surviving: And whereas it may be expedient that certain Parts 'of the said recited Act, which are expired, should be revived and continued, subject to such Variations as 'herein-after are mentioned;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Person and Persons who at the Time of the passing of this Act shall have and enjoy the Office and Offices of Gover- nor General, and Councillors of the said Presidency, shall hold and continue in his and their respective Directors, with the Consent of his Majesty, may appoint a new Governor General, in case of Death, Resignation, &c.

but he shall not be intitled to any Salary, as such, until he actually takes upon himself the said Office.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Directors of the said United Company, and they are hereby impowered to nominate and appoint, by and with the Consent of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to be signified under his or their Sign Manual, any one of the Council of the said Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, or any other Person, to succeed to the Place and Office of Governor General of the said Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, and from Time to Time to revoke the said Nomination and Appointment; and the Person so nominated and appointed shall succeed to the said Place or Office when the same shall happen to become vacant by the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the Governor General of the said Presidency for the Time being, and have all and every the Powers and Authorities of Governor General of the said Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, in like Manner as if he had succeeded after a Vacancy had happened; but nevertheless the Person so to be appointed as aforesaid to succeed to the vacant Office of Governor General of the said Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, shall not be intitled to any Salary, Perquisite, Allowance, or Advantage whatsoever, as Governor General, until he shall become intitled unto, and take upon himself the said Office of Governor General of the said Presidency; and in case he shall not happen to be at Fort William in Bengal aforesaid, at the Time the said Vacancy shall happen, then and in such Case the said Office shall be supplied, until the Time of his Arrival at Fort William aforesaid, by the senior Councillor of the said Presidency.

but the Persons so to be appointed shall not be intitled to any Salary, until they actually take upon themselves the said Office of Councillor.

'XXXVII. And whereas it may be inconvenient to suffer the Office of a Councillor of the said Presi-'dency of Fort William in Bengal to remain vacant till the same can be supplied in England, after the 'Advice of such Vacancy;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Directors of the said United Company, and they are hereby impowered, from Time to Time, to nominate and appoint, by and with the Consent of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to be signified under his or their Sign Manual, one or two Persons to succeed respectively to the Office of a Councillor of the said Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, whenever a Vacancy shall happen in that Office by any of the Ways in the said recited Act mentioned, and to declare which of the said two Persons shall first succeed to the said Office of a Councillor, and upon the first Vacancy in that Office the said Persons respectively shall succeed thereto accordingly, and have all and every the Powers and Authorities of a Councillor of the said Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, in like Manner as if he had been appointed thereto after a Vacancy had happened; and it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon the Representation of the Court of Directors of the said United Company for the Time being, from Time to Time to revoke the Nomination and Appointment of such Persons to succeed to the vacant Office of a Councillor of the said Presidency, in like Manner as a Councillor of the said Presidency may be removed from such Office under the Authority of the said recited Act; but, nevertheless, the Persons so to be appointed as aforesaid to succeed to the vacant Office of a Councillor of the said Presidency, shall not be intitled as a Councillor to any Salary, Perquisite, Allowance, or Advantage whatsoever, until he shall become intitled unto, and take upon himself, the Office of a Councillor of the said Presidency.

Commander in Chief of the Company's Forces, if appointed a Councillor, shall take Rank as Second in Council; but shall not succeed as Governor General, without a special Appointment.

CAP. LXXIII.

An Act for diminishing the Fees payable, and altering the Mode of Proceeding, in the Court of Record within the Manors of Stepney and Hackney, in the County of Middlesex, the Hamlets and Liberties of the same.

Preamble.

Recital of Letters Patent, dated May 2, in 19 Car. II.

'WHEREAS his Majesty King Charles the Second, by his Letters Patent, under the Great Seal 'of England, bearing Date at Westminster the Second Day of May, in the nineteenth Year of his 'Reign, reciting, That there had been, Time out of Mind, within the Manors of Stebunheath alias Ste- 'bunhith alias Stepney, not only for the said Manor, but also for the Manor of Hackney in the County of 'Middlesex, a certain Court Baron, for the Determination of certain Actions personal, arising within 'those Manors, not amounting to the Sum of forty Shillings; and that because the King's Subjects dwell- 'ing, residing, and inhabiting within the said Manors, and the Hamlets and Liberties of the same, were 'very numerous, and very many of them indigent Sailors and seafaring Men, who for the most Part of 'their Lives were at Sea, and in the King's Service upon the High Sea, and also were many Times em- 'ployed in the mercantile Affairs of the King's Subjects in Parts beyond the Seas; and therefore that it 'was right and fit that the resident Inhabitants, meeting, dwelling, contracting, negociating, or being 'within the said Manors, the Hamlets and Liberties of the same, should have speedy Justice in their per- 'sonal Actions, Pleas and Complaints, lest peradventure they should be long and much hindered from the 'King's Service, and their other maritime Business; therefore did, at the Request of the Right Honour- 'able Thomas Earl of Cleaveland, and Thomas Lord Wentworth, vouchsafe to erect, create, and constitute 'a certain Court of Pleas of Record, to be called The Court of the Lord the King of Record, within the 'Manors of Stepney and Hackney, in the County of Middlesex, the Hamlets and Liberties of the same; to 'be held on every Thursday in every Week throughout the Year (except as therein excepted), for the 'Determination, before the Steward of the said Court for the Time being, or his Deputy (the said Stew- 'ard, or his Deputy, being Barristers of three Years standing at the Bar at least), of all and singular 'Actions, Pleas, and Complaints, personal Trespasses with Force and Arms, Trespasses on the Case, 'Debts, Accounts, Detinue of Goods and Chattels, Deceipts and Contracts, and other Causes, Com- 'plaints, and Pleas personal whatsoever, of any Sum or Damage not amounting to the Sum of one hun- 'dred Shillings (Pleas de Ejectione firmæ only excepted), according to the Laws and Customs of England, 'to hold Plea of the same, within the said Manors, and the Hamlets and Liberties of the same, in as 'ample Manner and Form as any other Court of Record, by the Laws and Customs of England, of such 'and the like Pleas, Complaints, or Actions, hath or hold Plea, or might or ought to hold Plea; and 'granting to Sir William Smyth Baronet, and his Heirs or Assigns, the Appointment of the said Steward, 'and the other Officers of the said Court, as by the said Letters Patent, and the Exemplification thereof, 'inrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and there remaining of Record, Reference being thereunto 'had, may more fully appear: And whereas the present Method of Proceeding, for the Recovery of Debts 'in the said Court of Record, is very dilatory, and the Expences attending it so great, that in most Cases 'it exceeds the Debt to be recovered: And whereas, if proper Powers were granted for shortening the 'Proceedings of the said Court, to enable the Creditor to recover his Debt in a more summary Way, the 'Expences thereof would be so much reduced, that Numbers of Tradesmen resident within the said 'District, who now submit to the Loss of their small Debts, would have the Means of recovering them, 'without distressing the unfortunate Debtor by the present heavy Costs and Law Expences: And whereas 'it would greatly alleviate the Distresses of the honest and industrious Debtor, if the Steward of the said 'Court were enabled to order Payment of the Debt by different Payments, at the Discretion of the Jury 'herein-after mentioned; which partial Payment it might be possible for the Debtor to make, though ab- 'solutely impossible for him to pay the whole Debt in one Sum: And whereas it is also reasonable that 'there should be a Limitation of Time for the Imprisonment for Small Debts:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, it shall and may be lawful for the Steward of the said Court, herein-after mentioned, or his Deputy, and for the Successor and Successors of the said Steward, to be named, appointed, and approved of, in Manner hereafter mentioned, and his or their Deputies, upon any Plaint to be hereafter levied in the said Court, for any Sums above forty Shillings, and under five Pounds, to issue a Summons, requiring the Defendant or Defendants in the said Plaint to appear on the next Court-day before the Steward of the said Court, or his Deputy for the Time being, at the present Court-house in Whitechapel Road, or at any other Court-house within the Jurisdiction aforesaid, at the Discretion of the Steward of the said Court, to answer the said Plaint; and which Plaint shall briefly contain the Substance of the said Plaintiff's Complaint or Declaration, in the Words or to the Effect following; videlicet, Preamble. Act 14 Geo. III. recited.

'WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for more effectually carrying into Execution certain Proposals made by the Most Noble Henry Duke of Buccleugh, the Most Noble Charles Duke of Queensberry and Dover, and others, for redeeming the Annuities granted by the Company of the Bank of Ayr, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, known under the Firm of Douglas, Heron, and Company, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for the said Henry Duke of Buccleugh, Charles Duke of Queensberry and Dover, Archibald Douglas of Douglas Esquire, John Hamilton of Sundrum, Alexander Fergusson of Craigdarroch, Hay Campbell, David Ferguson, Alexander Wight, John Campbell, Andrew Crosbie, George Home, Alexander Mackonochie, Thomas Lockhart, and John Syme, or any five of them (of which the said Henry Duke of Buccleugh, Charles Duke of Queensberry and Dover, and Archibald Douglas of Douglas Esquire, or any two of them, or the Survivor of them, should be three, two, or one, as the Case might happen), to execute and issue Bonds for the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole five hundred thousand Pounds, for redeeming certain Annuities granted by the Partnership of Douglas, Heron, and Company, or for raising Money thereon for redeeming the said Annuities, and that in the Form and Manner, and under the Conditions in the said Act mentioned; and all which Bonds, so to be issued, are declared to be assignable, by Indorsement upon the original Bond, without Stamps, to any Person or Persons whatsoever, toties quoties, and as often as Occasion should be and require: And by the said Act it is provided, That the said Bonds should not be negociable or transferrable by Indorsement after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty two:

Bonds issued by the Duke of Buccleugh, &c.

Part thereof paid.

'And whereas the said Henry Duke of Buccleugh, Charles Duke of Queensberry and Dover, Archibald Douglas, of Douglas Esquire, and the other Persons in the said Act mentioned, did, in Terms thereof, execute and issue Bonds for five hundred thousand Pounds; Part whereof, amounting to the Sum of two hundred and thirteen thousand three hundred Pounds, has already been paid off and discharged, and the Bonds granted in pursuance of the said Act, have been taken up and cancelled by the said Partnership of Douglas, Heron, and Company; but by reason of the great Fall in the Price of Lands, in which the greatest Part of the Funds of the Company are invested, and the Difficulty of finding Purchasers for the same, and of recovering the other Debts due to the Partnership, in the present State of Credit and Situation of that Part of the United Kingdom, it is apprehended that it will be impossible to pay off the Remainder of the said Bonds previous to, or upon the said twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, when they cease to be transferrable by Indorsement, which may occasion great Loss and Inconvenience both to the said Partnership, and to the Holders of the said Bonds, unless prevented by the Interposition of Parliament:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Bonds issued under the Authority of the said in Part recited Act, which shall be outstanding and remain unpaid upon the said twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, shall continue, and are hereby declared to be transferrable by Indorsement upon the original Bond, without Stamps, toties quoties, and as often as Occasion shall be and require, until the twenty-fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, and no longer.

The outstanding Bonds to be negociable until June 24, 1786.

Publick Act.

II. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed, taken, and allowed, in all Courts within England and Scotland, to be a Publick Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons, without specially pleading the same.

Recital of 12 Geo. I. Cap. 26.

'II. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty 'King George the First, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duty laid upon Snuff, by an Act made in the eighth 'Year of her late Majesty's Reign, and for ascertaining the Rates according to which the remaining Duties are to 'be paid; and for giving further Encouragement to the Greenland Fishery; it is, amongst other Things enacted, That in lieu of the former Rates and Duties ad valorem, which were repealed by that Act, all 'Snuff imported into any Port or Place within this Kingdom shall, upon the Importation thereof, be rated 'to and pay the several Duties due and payable thereon, according to the Rates and Values therein mentioned, and not according to the Values sworn to or affirmed by the Importers; that is to say, All Snuff 'imported in British Ships, from any of the British Plantations in America, or from any Part of the Spanish 'West Indies, shall be rated at two Shillings and Sixpence for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois; and all 'Snuff imported from Italy, Spain, Portugal, and all other foreign Parts, except France, shall be rated at 'five Shillings for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois, and in that Proportion for any greater or less Quantity: And whereas the fraudulent Importers of Snuff, to avoid Payment of the Duties according to the 'said Rate, have imported into this Kingdom great Quantities of Snuff the Manufacture of Flanders, and 'entered the same as French Snuff, upon Oath, at a very low inconsiderable Value, to the great Prejudice 'of the public Revenue, and Injury to the fair Trader:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, all Snuff of the Produce or Manufacture of France, which shall be imported into this Kingdom, shall be liable to, and shall pay the same Duties, and no more, as are or may be due for Snuff imported from Italy, Spain, or Portugal, according to the said Rate of five Shillings for every Pound Weight thereof, and not according to the Oath or Affirmation of the Importer; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding.

After May 1, 1782, French Snuff to pay the same Duties on Importation as other Foreign Snuff.

Regulations relative to the Importation of Foreign Snuff.

'III. And, for the better preventing Frauds and Abuses in the clandestine Importation of foreign Snuff 'into this Kingdom, to the Diminution of the public Revenue, and the Discouragement of the fair 'Trader;' it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, no foreign Snuff shall be brought or imported into Great Britain, from any Port or Place whatsoever beyond the Seas, otherwise than loose in Casks, Chests, or Cases only, each Cask, Chest, or Case whereof shall contain three hundred and fifty Pounds Weight of nett Snuff, at the least, and shall not be packed in Bags, or in any other Packages, in such Cask, Chest, or Case, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of all such Snuff as shall be imported contrary to this Act, together with all the Casks, Chests, Cases, or other Package, containing the same; and such Snuff shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs, and sued for, prosecuted, and disposed of, in the same Manner, and the Officer or Officers so seizing the same shall be intitled to and allowed the same Reward, as is prescribed and directed for other forfeited Snuff by an Act, made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual securing the Duties upon Tobacco.

24 Geo. II. Cap. 41.

'IV. And whereas the clandestine Importation and Running of Spirits, Tea, and other prohibited 'Goods, into this Kingdom, has, since the present Hostilities, been carried on to a great Degree in large 'Vessels, fitted out and armed as Privateers: And whereas, by Means of this illicit Commerce, so prejudicial to the public Revenue, and the fair Trader, the Powers with whom Great Britain is now at War 'may, and it is apprehended do, often receive Intelligence very detrimental to this Kingdom:' For the better preventing whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, if any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, which shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque, or general Reprizals, or otherwise, by his Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall be found at Sea in any Part of this Kingdom, at any Distance from the Coasts thereof, having on Board any foreign Brandy, or other foreign Spirituous Liquors, in any Vessels or Casks which shall not contain sixty Gallons at the least, except only for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on Board such Ship or Vessel, not exceeding two Gallons for each Seaman, or any Tea, not exceeding the Quantity of six Pounds Weight, or any other Goods whatsoever which are or may be liable to Forfeiture, by any Act of Parliament, upon being imported into Privateers which shall be found at Sea having on Board Foreign Spirits in any Vessel less than 60 Gallons (except for the Use of the Seamen on Board), or Tea, &c. above a certain Quantity, shall be forfeited, with all their Guns, Loading, &c.

Great Britain, then not only all such Goods, but also the Ship or Vessel on Board which they shall be found as aforesaid, with all her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, shall be forfeited and lost, and the same shall and may be carried and delivered into the Care and Custody of the Collector and Comptroller of his Majesty's Customs, at any Port in this Kingdom which shall be nearest to the Place where such Ship or Vessel shall be found, and the same shall be seized, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, by such Ways and Rules and in such Manner and Form, as such Vessels and Goods would be liable to be seized, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, by any Law in Force, if the same had been found within the Limits of any Port of this Kingdom; and the Letters of Marque, or General Reprizal, or any other Commission granted for such Ship or Vessel, shall be null and void; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. XXII.

Preamble.

5 Annæ, Cap. 7, recited.

'WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was made, in the fifth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for regulating and ascertaining the Duties to be paid by the Unfreemen Importers of Coals into the Port and Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, whereby all Persons, not free of the Corporation of Great Yarmouth, are authorised, upon Payment of certain Duties or Sums of Money, therein particularly mentioned, to the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty, of the said Borough of Great Yarmouth, to import Coals, Culm, and Cinders, into the said Port, and to sell the same, in like Manner as Burgesses or Freemen of the said Corporation are authorised to do: And whereas it frequently happens that Coals, Culm, and Cinders, are imported into the said Port in Ships or Vessels which belong, in separate Shares, as well to Burgesses or Freemen as to Persons who are not free of the said Corporation, and that the Loading in such Ships or Vessels is the separate Property of such Persons; and, in order to evade Payment of the Duties or Sums of Money which ought to be paid, by Persons who are not free of the said Corporation, for such Coals, Culm, and Cinders, false Lists or Accounts of such Ships or Vessels, and of the Loading thereof, are frequently made out and delivered to the Water Bailiff, or Receiver of the said Duties, by Ship Masters and others, by Means of which fraudulent Practices the said Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty, are deprived of great Part of the Duties or Sums of Money which they are intitled to receive by virtue of the said Act:' In order therefore to prevent such fraudulent Practices for the future, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, whenever any Coals, Culm, or Cinders, shall be imported into the said Port, the Master of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported shall, previous to the Time of the clearing of such Ship or Vessel at the Custom-house at Great Yarmouth aforesaid, deliver to the Water Bailiff of the said Borough, at the Office called The Water Bailiff's Office in Great Yarmouth aforesaid, a true and perfect Account, in Writing (to the best of his Knowledge and belief), signed by him, of the Name or Names of the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, and of the Parts and Shares such Owners respectively have therein, in case there shall be more Owners than one; and such Shipmaster shall also, at the Time he delivers in such Account, verify the Truth thereof, upon Oath, before the said Water Bailiff, who is hereby authorised and impowered to administer such Oath.

After June 1, 1782, the Importers of Coals, &c. into the Port of Great Yarmouth shall deliver to the Water Bailiff a signed Account of the Names of the Owners, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Coals, Culm, or Cinders, shall be imported into the said Port of Great Yarmouth, by or on the Account of any Person being a Burgess or Freeman of the said Corporation, such Person shall appear at the said Office at or before the Time of giving in the Account before-mentioned by the Master of the Ship or Vessel in which such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, shall be imported, and shall deliver to the said Water Bailiff an Account, in Writing, signed by him, specifying the Part or Share (if any) of such Ship or Vessel to which he is intitled, and also of the Coals, Culm, or Cinders, imported therein on his own Account, and not in Trust for any other Person or Persons not being free of the said Corporation, or otherwise fraudulently, colourably, or collusively, with Intent to evade the Payment of the said Duties or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof; and shall verify the Truth of such Account, upon Oath, before the said Water Bailiff, who is hereby authorised and impowered to administer the same.

Any Freeman of the Corporation importing Coals, &c. shall deliver to the Water Bailiff, at his Office, an Account, on Oath, of the Quantity thereof.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case the Master of any such Ship or Vessel, as aforesaid, or the Owner of any such Ship or Vessel, or of any Part thereof, or the Person importing any such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, on his own Account, shall neglect or refuse to give in such Account, as aforesaid, or to verify the Truth thereof upon Oath, according to the Directions of this Act, that then all the Coals, Culm, and Cinders, in respect whereof, or of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported, any such Neglect or Refusal shall happen, shall be deemed to be imported by Persons not being free of the said Corporation, and the like Duties or Sums of Money shall be paid for the same by the Master of such Ship or Vessel, as are by the said former Act made payable for or in respect of Coals, Culm, or Cinders, imported by Persons not free of the said Corporation; and such Duties or Sums of Money, shall and may be levied and recovered by such Ways and Means, and in like Manner, as any of the Duties imposed by the said Act can or may be levied and recovered.

On Default the same Duties shall be paid as for Coals, &c. the Property of Non-freemen.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Burgess or Freeman of the said Corporation, being the Owner of any such Ship or Vessel, as aforesaid, or of any Part thereof,

In certain Cases the Duties paid by Freemen shall be returned, although they neglect to deliver in such Account as before directed.

thereof, or the Importer of any such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, on his own Account, shall not give in such Account as aforesaid, within the Time herein-before limited for that Purpose, and shall at any Time afterwards deliver such Account to the said Water Bailiff, and verify the Truth thereof upon Oath, as herein-before directed; or in case any such Burgess or Freeman, by reason of his residing at a Distance from the said Borough, or of Infirmity, or otherwise, cannot conveniently attend at the said Office to verify the Truth of the said Account, as aforesaid, and shall verify the same by Affidavit, to be made and subscribed by him before any Justice of the Peace for the County or Place wherein he shall reside, and shall transmit such Account and Affidavit to the said Water Bailiff; that then, and in either of the said Cases, the said Water Bailiff shall, and is hereby required forthwith to return and pay back to such Burgess or Freeman, or to such Person as he shall, by Writing under his Hand, appoint to receive the same, the whole Amount of the Duties and Sums of Money which shall have been paid by the Shipmaster to the said Water Bailiff for or in respect of the Right or Interest of such Burgess or Freeman in any such Ship or Vessel, or of the Coals, Culm, or Cinders, imported on his own Account, as aforesaid; provided an Account of the Ship or Vessel in which such Coals, Culm, or Cinders, shall be imported, shall have been given in by the Shipmaster, and verified on Oath, as herein-before directed; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

Persons swearing falsely to be deemed guilty of Perjury.

V. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person, who shall deliver to the said Water Bailiff such Account as herein-before directed, shall knowingly and wilfully deliver in a false Account, and shall make Oath to the Truth thereof before the said Water Bailiff, or any Justice of the Peace, as aforesaid, and shall be convicted of such Offence, every such Person shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Publick Act.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be a Public Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons, without specially pleading the same.

Preamble.

Act 3 Geo. I. recited.

'WHEREAS by a Clause in an Act of Parliament, pass'd in the third Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for explaining an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to oblige Papists to register their Names and real Estates; and for enlarging the Time for such registering; and for securing Purchases made by Protestants;" it was enacted, That, from and after the Twenty-ninth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, no Manors, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or any Interest therein, or Rent or Profit thereout, should pass, alter, or change, from any Papist, or Person professing the Popish Religion, by any Deed or Will, except such Deed, within six Months after the Date, and such Will, within six Months after the Death of the Testator, should be enrolled in one of the King's Courts of Record at Westminster, or else within the same County or Counties wherein the Manors, Lands, and Tenements lie, in such Manner as therein, for that Purpose, is particularly directed: And whereas by several Acts of Parliament, made in the tenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, and in the third, sixth, ninth, eleventh, twelfth, sixteenth, nineteenth, twenty-first, twenty-eighth, thirty-first, and thirty-third of his late Majesty King George the Second; and the second, fourth, seventh, twelfth, fourteenth, seventeenth, and eighteenth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, it was enacted, That every Deed and Will, made since the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, in order to pass, alter, or change, any Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Interest therein, or any Rent or Profit thereout, from any Papist, or Person professing the Popish Religion, to any Protestant or Protestants, or by reason of which Deed or Will any Protestant or Protestants may claim or derive any legal, equitable, or other Interest whatsoever, to his, her, or their Use, for his, her, or their Benefit, or to the Use or Benefit of any other Protestant or Protestants, though not inrolled, or not inrolled in due Time, shall be as good and effectual in Law as the same would have been in case the said Deeds and Wills had been inrolled within the Times limited by the said Clauses in the said Act, for the Inrollment thereof; provided the said Deeds and Wills should be inrolled on or before the respective Times in the said several Acts for that Purpose mentioned, in such Manner as by the said Clause in the first mentioned Act is directed: And whereas several Persons having or claiming, or being intitled to Estates or Interests in Manors, Lands, and Hereditaments, under Deeds and Wills made by Papists, or Persons professing the Popish Religion, may be in Danger of being defeated or impeached, in his, her, or their Claim or Claims, Title or Titles, to such Manors, Lands, and Hereditaments, by reason that some Deeds or Wills necessary to make out the Title have not been duly inrolled, according to the Directions of the said Act:' Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Deed and Will, made since the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, in order to pass, alter, or change, any Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Interest therein, or any Rent or Profit thereout, from any Papist, or Person professing the Popish Religion, to any Person or Persons whomsoever, though not inrolled, or not inrolled in due Time, shall be as good and effectual in the Law as the same would have been in case the said Deeds and Wills had been inrolled within the Times limited, by the said Clauses in the said Acts, for the Inrollment thereof; provided the same Deeds and Wills shall be inrolled on or before the first Day of September, one thousand

This Act not to extend to Deeds, &c. the Validity whereof has been brought in question before Jan. 1, 1782.

II. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to make good any such Deed, Will, or Lease, already made and not inrolled, of the Want of Inrollment whereof Advantage shall have been taken on or before the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two; but every such Deed, Will, or Lease, shall remain of such Force and Effect only, as the same would have had if this Act had never been made, and of none other Force and Effect.

Purchases made by Protestants not to be avoided, on Account of the Title-deeds not having been inrolled, &c.

'III. And whereas many Purchases made by Protestants may be in Danger of being impeached or called 'in question, in regard that some Deeds or Wills, through which the Title thereto is derived, ought to 'have been inrolled according to the said Acts, but have not been so inrolled;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Purchase made for full and valuable Consideration of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any Interest therein, by any Protestant or Protestants, and merely and only for the Benefit of the Protestants, shall be impeached or avoided, for or by reason that any Deed or Will, through which the Title thereto is derived, hath not been inrolled as required by the said Acts, so as no Advantage was taken of Inrollment thereof before such Purchase was made, and so as no Decree or Judgement hath been obtained for Want of the Inrollment of such Deeds or Wills.

This Act not to make good any Grant of the Right of Presentation to any Benefice, &c. in Trust for any Papist.

CAP. XXVIII.

An Act for granting an additional Duty upon Tobacco and Snuff; and for repealing certain Duties payable upon the Importation of Brandy and Arrack, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof.

'Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, towards raiſing the neceſſary Supplies to defray your Majeſty's publick Expences, have 'freely and voluntarily reſolved to give and grant unto your Majeſty the ſeveral Impoſts and Duties herein-'after mentioned; and do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty that it may be enacted,' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, Preamble.

From June 1, 1782, an additional Duty of 4 d. per Pound on all Tobacco imported; and of 8 d. per Pound on all Snuff imported.

Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Tobacco which, from and after the first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, shall be imported or brought into this Kingdom of Great Britain, over and above all Customs, Subsidies, and Duties, already imposed thereon, an additional Duty of Four-pence for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois, and after that Rate for a greater or less Quantity.

'II. And whereas, in order to promote and encourage the Manufacture of Snuff in Great Britain, it is 'expedient that a further Duty should be imposed upon Foreign Snuff imported, in proportion to the said 'additional Duty by this Act granted upon Tobacco;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be also raised, collected, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Snuff which, from and after the said first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, shall be imported or brought into this Kingdom of Great Britain, over and above all Customs, Subsidies, and Duties, already imposed thereon, an additional Duty of eight-pence for every Pound Weight Avoirdupois, and after that Rate for any greater or less Quantity.

Recital of an Act 18 Car. II. and the Additional Book of Rates, 11 Geo. I, relative to the Duty on Brandy.

'III. And whereas by an Act, made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, 'intituled, An Act for encouraging of Coinage, a Duty of twenty Shilling per Ton was imposed upon 'Brandy, Wines, or Strong Waters, imported into this Kingdom; and in and by the Additional Book of 'Rates, referred to by an Act made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the 'First, Spirits called Brandy are rated as follows; that is to say, Brandy of France, the Ton, containing 'two hundred and fifty-two Gallons, at thirty Pounds; Brandy of Spain, Portugal, or Italy, the Ton, 'containing two hundred and fifty-two Gallons, at fifteen Pounds; and Brandy of all other Countries, 'not otherwise rated, the Ton, containing two hundred and fifty-two Gallons, at twenty Pounds: And 'whereas by an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, 'intituled, An Act for ascertaining the Duties upon Arrack, and for giving further Time to Clerks and Appren- 'tices to pay Duties omitted to be paid for their Indentures and Contracts; it was, amongst other Things, 'enacted, That the same Subsidies, Duties, and Excise, then payable upon Brandy and Foreign Spirits 'imported, and no more, should be paid for Arrack, imported from any of his Majesty's Colonies or Ter- 'ritories in the East Indies, and that the same Allowance should be made on the Exportation thereof, as 'was made upon Foreign Brandy, or other Spirits: And whereas, in order to evade Payment of the Du- 'ties due by Law upon Brandy of France, great Quantities of French Brandy mixed abroad with Brandy of 'other Countries, have been imported into this Kingdom from Dunkirk, and other Ports in Flanders, 'under the Denomination of Flemish Brandy; and by reason of such Mixture, and other Practices, used by 'the Traders therein to disguise the same, it is impossible for the Officers of the Customs to ascertain the 'proper Duties that ought to be paid for such Brandy, whereby the publick Revenue is diminished, and 'the fair Trader much injured:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, the said Rates upon Brandy shall be repealed, and the several Duties payable upon the Importation of Brandy and Arrack, as herein-before mentioned (except the Duties of Excise, as herein-after is provided), and all former Drawbacks on the Exportation thereof, shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid.

7 Geo. II, Cap. 14.

From June 1, 1782, the said Duties on Importation of Brandy and Arrack, (except Excise Duties) to cease.

New Duties to be paid instead thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, in lieu and in stead of the said former Rates and Duties repealed by this Act, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, for every Ton of Brandy, or Spirits usually entered under that Denomination, containing two hundred and fifty-two Gallons, which shall be brought or imported into this Kingdom from any Place or Country beyond the Seas, the Sum of eight Pounds and eight Shillings; and for every Ton of Arrack, containing two hundred and fifty-two Gallons, which shall be brought or imported into this Kingdom, the like Sum of eight Pounds and eight Shillings; and after those Rates for any greater or less Quantity thereof; any Thing in any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

New Duties subject to an additional Duty of 5 l. per Cent. conformable to 19 Geo. III. Cap. 25.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said respective Duties herein-before granted, shall be also subject and liable to an additional Impost or Duty of five Pounds per Centum, in the same Manner, and under the same Regulations, as the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum is granted to his Majesty by an Act, made in the nineteenth Year of his Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon the Produce of the several Duties under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in Great Britain.

Duties to be paid upon Importation without any Discount, and to be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several and respective Duties herein-before granted, shall be paid down in ready Money, without any Discount or Allowance, upon Importation, and shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures (except where any Alteration is made by this Act), as the former Duties payable to his Majesty upon such Articles respectively were raised, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Clauses, Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, respectively relating thereto, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act; and the same shall be under the Management and Direction of the respective Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs and their Officers for the Time being, and shall be paid into the Hands of the Receiver-general of the Customs in England, and shall be by him paid (the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, and answering the same, only excepted) into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and appropriated and applied in the following Manner; that is to say; two Pounds, twelve Shillings, and Sixpence, Part of the said Duties on Brandy and Arrack, to the Subsidy on Spirits; one Pound and one Shilling, other Part thereof, to the Subsidy one thousand seven hundred and forty-seven; one Pound and one Shilling, to the Subsidy one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine; one Pound and one Shilling, to the Coinage on Spirits; and two Pounds, twelve Shillings, and Sixpence, the Remainder of the said Duties on Brandy and Arrack, together with the Whole of the several additional Duties of four-pence per Pound Weight upon Tobacco, and eight-pence per Pound Weight upon Snuff, shall be paid in distinct and apart from all other Monies which such Receiver-general shall receive for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act mentioned; and the additional Impost of five Pounds per Centum, granted by this Act, shall be paid in as Part of the said Impost, granted by the before mentioned Act of the nineteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, under the Title and Description of The Impost one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine.

A Book to be kept in the Auditor's Office, in which the additional Duties are to be entered.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept, in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said last mentioned Duty of two Pounds, twelve Shillings, and Sixpence, being Part of the Duties on Brandy and Arrack; and the said additional Duties of Fourpence per Pound Weight upon Tobacco, and of Eight-pence per Pound Weight upon Snuff, hereby granted and paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid, shall be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatsoever; and the said Money, so paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer as aforesaid, shall, together with such other Rates, Duties, and Revenues, as shall be granted by any Act or Acts of this Session of Parliament for this Purpose (and not otherwise applied), be a Fund for the Payment of the several Annuities, and all such other Charges and Expences as are directed to be paid and payable pursuant to an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for establishing a Lottery.

Application thereof.

Drawbacks to be allowed on the Exportation of Brandy and Arrack, Tobacco and Snuff.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in lieu of the former Drawbacks upon the Exportation of Brandy and Arrack, repealed by this Act, where any Brandy or Arrack, having paid the Duties herein-before granted, shall be again exported by way of Merchandize, the Merchant or Merchants, so exporting the same, shall be repaid and allowed the following Drawback; that is to say; For every Ton of such Brandy or Arrack, as shall be exported to any British Colony or Plantation in America, the Sum of seven Pounds, and seven Shillings; and for every Ton of such Brandy or Arrack, as shall be exported to any other Place, where such Brandy or Arrack would have been legally intitled to any former Drawback, the Sum of seven Pounds, seventeen Shillings, and Sixpence; and after those Rates for any greater or less Quantity; and upon the Exportation of such Tobacco and Snuff from this Kingdom, to any Part beyond the Seas, as Merchandize, the Exporter shall be paid and allowed a Drawback of all the before-mentioned Duties, paid upon the Importation of such Tobacco and Snuff by virtue of this Act; which said respective Drawbacks or Allowances shall be made in such Manner, and under such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures in all Respects, as any former Drawback or Allowance, payable out of the Duties of Customs upon the Exportation of such Brandy, Arrack, Tobacco, or Snuff, was, could, or might be paid or allowed.

This Act not to alter the Duties of Excise upon Foreign Brandy, &c.

IX. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal, or any wise alter, any Duty of Excise imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, upon Foreign Brandy, Arrack, or Strong Waters, imported into this Kingdom, but such Duties shall continue to be paid and applied in the same Manner, in all Respects, as if this Act had not been made.

and upon ſuch 'Action or Suit there ſhould be further recovered to his Majeſty's Uſe, againſt the ſaid United Company, 'Damages after the Rate of fifteen Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the reſpective Monies ſo unpaid 'contrary to the ſaid Act, together with full Coſts of Suit: And it was thereby further enacted, That, 'from and after the firſt Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-one, for and during ſo 'long Time as the ſaid United Company, under the Authority of that Act, ſhould be intitled to the 'whole, ſole, and excluſive Trade and Traffick in, to, and from, the Eaſt Indies, and Places aforeſaid, 'the whole clear Profits ariſing from the ſaid Territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues, after defraying the 'Charges and Expences attending the ſame, together with all the clear Revenues and Profits of the ſaid 'Company, after providing for the current Payments of Intereſt, and other Outgoings, Charges, and Ex- 'pences of the ſaid Company, ſhould, from Time to Time, be diſpoſed of and applied in Manner therein 'and herein-after mentioned; that is to ſay, It ſhould be lawful for the ſaid United Company to ſet apart 'and retain, in the firſt Place, in each and every Year, ſuch Sum as ſhould be equal to eight Pounds per 'Centum per Annum, upon the Capital Stock of the ſaid United Company of three millions two hundred 'thouſand Pounds; and in caſe there ſhould remain a Surplus of the ſaid clear Revenues and Profits, 'above the ſaid Sum of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, ſo to be retained by the ſaid United Company 'as aforeſaid, three fourth Parts of ſuch Surplus Profits ſhould be ſet apart, and applied for the Uſe of the 'Publick, and the remaining fourth Part thereof ſhould be reſerved and retained by the ſaid United Com- 'pany for their own Uſe: And it was thereby further enacted, That it ſhould be lawful for the ſaid 'United Company to apply ſuch Money as they were therein-before authoriſed to retain to themſelves, and 'and alſo other Money in the ſaid Act mentioned, in the Payment of Dividends to the Proprietors of the 'Stock of the ſaid United Company, not exceeding the Rate of twelve Pounds and ten Shillings per Cen- 'tum per Annum, provided the Bond Debt of the ſaid United Company did not at any ſuch Time exceed 'one million five hundred thouſand Pounds; and provided that they did not increaſe the preſent Dividend 'of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, more than at the Rate of one Pound per Centum in each and 'every Year: And, in order to aſcertain the yearly net Profits ariſing from the ſaid United Company's 'Trade and Revenues, it was further enacted, That the ſaid United Company ſhould cauſe to be made up 'yearly, for each and every Year during the Term therein mentioned, with as much Accuracy as the Na- 'ture of the Caſe would admit, a Statement of the Profit and Loſs upon the Whole of the Trade and Re- 'venues of the ſaid United Company, together with a State of the Debts of the ſaid United Company in 'England, from the firſt Day of March in every Year, to the firſt Day of March in each ſucceeding 'Year; which ſaid Account was to be ſigned and delivered to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Trea- 'ſury, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being, as therein is mentioned: And whereas a Statement 'hath been duly made up of the Profit and Loſs upon the Whole of the Trade and Revenues of the ſaid 'United Company, from the firſt Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-one, to the firſt 'Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-two, whereby it appears, that the net Profits of 'the ſaid United Company, in that Year, did not amount to ſo much as a Dividend upon the Stock of 'the ſaid United Company, at the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, by the Sum of twenty- 'two thouſand and twenty-three Pounds: And whereas, by Means of the late Arrival of eighteen of the 'ſaid United Company's Ships from India and China, in the laſt Year, whoſe Cargoes could not be diſ- 'poſed of, and converted into Money, within the uſual Period, and by Means of the Payments made by 'the ſaid United Company, to the Uſe of the Publick, of the Sum of three hundred thouſand Pounds, in 'Part of the ſaid Sum of four hundred thouſand Pounds, the ſaid United Company were not able to pay 'the ſaid Cuſtoms, and the ſaid remaining Sum of one hundred thouſand Pounds, at the reſpective Times 'the ſame became due, without borrowing Money for thoſe Purpoſes; wherefore the Commiſſioners of 'his Majeſty's Treaſury conſented to poſtpone the ſaid Payments to the twenty-firſt Day of June, one 'thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-two; and as the Default of the ſaid Company, in reſpect to the ſaid 'Payments aroſe by ſuch Means as aforeſaid, and the ſaid Company are ſtill in Diſtreſs, it is fit that the 'ſaid Payments ſhould be further poſtponed, and that the ſaid Company ſhould be diſcharged and indem- 'nified from all Damages, Intereſt, Loſſes, and Diſadvantages ariſing thereby; and it is alſo fit that the 'ſaid United Company ſhould be allowed to continue a Dividend at the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum, 'to the Proprietors of their Stock, for the preſent Year:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, to poſtpone and allow further Time for the Payment of the ſaid Sum of three hundred and ninety-ſix thouſand four hundred ſixty-ſix Pounds, two Shillings, and Sixpence, which became due, for Cuſtoms, at ſuch ſeveral Times as herein-before are mentioned; and of the ſaid Sum of one hundred thouſand Pounds, which became due on the firſt Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-one, or any Part or Parts of the ſaid Sums reſpectively, unto ſuch Time or Times as they ſhall think fit, not exceeding the firſt Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-three; and if the ſaid United Company do and ſhall pay the ſaid Sums reſpectively, at ſuch Time or Times to which the ſaid Payments ſhall be poſtponed as aforeſaid, the ſame ſhall be accepted and received in like Manner as if the ſaid Sums reſpectively had been paid on or before the ſeveral and reſpective Days on which the ſame became due, as herein-before is mentioned; and the ſaid United Company, upon ſuch Payment, at ſuch poſtponed Time or Times, ſhall be freed and diſcharged from all Damages,

A Statement hath been made up of the Profit and Loſs of the Company from March 1781, to March 1782.

Commiſſioners of the Treaſury may allow the Company further Time for Payment of certain Sums due to the Publick; on Payment whereof the Company ſhall be indemnified.

mages, Interest, and Losses, which they became liable to by means of not having made the said Payments respectively, at the several and respective Times on which the same became due, and shall be intitled unto, and have the same Discounts, Allowances, and Advantages, as if the said Sums respectively had been paid on or before the several and respective Days on which they became due; any Thing in the said recited Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, in any wise notwithstanding.

The Company impowered to set apart, between March 1, 1782, and March 1, 1783, a Sum sufficient to pay a Dividend of 8 per Cent.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said United Company to set apart and apply, in the Course of the present Year, from the first Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, to the first Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, so much Money as shall be equal to eight Pounds per Centum, on the Capital of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds, as and for a Dividend to the Proprietors of the Stock of the said Company, and to charge the same as a Debt in the annual Account to be made up to the first Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three; and if it shall happen that there shall be a Deficiency in such annual Account, it shall and may be lawful for the said United Company to carry forward such Deficiency, as a Charge in the Account of the succeeding Year; any Thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Deficiency in last Year's Account to be carried forward as a Charge in the present Year.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Deficiency of twenty-two thousand and twenty-three Pounds, appearing in the said annual Account made up to the first Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, shall be carried forward as a Charge in the Account of the present Year.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt of Exchequer a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said several Rates and Duties, and paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid, shall be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatsoever; and the said Money, so paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer as aforesaid, except so much thereof as is herein-before otherwise appropriated, shall, together with such other Rates, Duties, and Revenues, as shall be granted by any Act or Acts of this Session of Parliament for this Purpose, be a Fund for the Payment of the several Annuities, and all such other Charges and Expences, as are directed to be paid and payable pursuant to an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for establishing a Lottery.

In case the Produce of the Duties granted by this Act, and other Acts, shall prove insufficient to pay the An-this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for establishing a Lottery, shall not be sufficient to pay and discharge the several Annuities of three Pounds per Centum, and of four Pounds per Centum, and also the said Annuity of seventeen Shillings and Sixpence per Centum, to continue for seventy-eight Years, from the fifth Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, and then to cease, together with the other Charges and Expences attending the said respective Annuities, to be satisfied and paid out of the same at the End of any or either of the half-yearly Days of Payment at which the same are directed by the said Act to be paid; then, and so often, and in every such Case, such Deficiency or Deficiencies shall and may be supplied out of any of the Monies which, at any Time or Times, shall be or remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer, of the Surpluses, Excesses, overplus Monies, and other Revenues, composing the Fund commonly called The Sinking Fund (except such Monies of the said Sinking Fund as are appropiated to any particular Use or Uses by any former Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf); and such Monies of the said Sinking Fund shall and may be, from Time to Time, issued and applied accordingly: And if, at any Time or Times, before any Monies of the said Fund, to be established as aforesaid, shall be brought into the Exchequer as aforesaid, there shall happen to be a Want of Money for paying the several Annuities as aforesaid, which shall be actually incurred and grown due at any of the half-yearly Days of Payment before mentioned, that then, and in every such Case, the Money so wanted shall and may be supplied out of the Monies of the Sinking Fund (except as before excepted), and be issued accordingly.

XX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case there shall be any Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the said Funds, after the said several and respective Annuities and all Arrears thereof, are satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved for that Purpose, such Surplus or Remainder shall, from Time to Time, be reserved for the Disposition of Parliament, and shall not be issued but by the Authority of Parliament, and as shall be directed by future Act or Acts of Parliament; any Thing in any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recital of 21 Geo. III. Cap. 25.

'XXI. And whereas by an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties payable upon Chocolate made in Great Britain, and for granting certain Inland Duties upon Cocoa Nuts in Lieu thereof; for the better and more effectual securing the Revenue of Excise, and of the Inland Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and for preventing Frauds therein; for the more punctual and ready Payment of the Allowances to be made to Brewers out of the additional Duties imposed on Malt; and for rectifying a Mistake in an Act made in this present Session of Parliament, with respect to the exempting of Candles from the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum upon the Duties of Excise imposed by the said Act; it was, amongst other Things enacted, That, for the preventing of smuggled Tea being being conveyed from the Sea Coasts of this Kingdom into the Stocks of Dealers in Tea, no Tea exceeding the Quantity of six Pounds Weight should at any Time, save as therein is after mentioned, be removed or carried from any Part of this Kingdom, not being within the Limits of the weekly Bills of Mortality, or of the Chief Office of Excise in London, to any Place within the said Limits: And whereas the suffering Tea to be brought from the Country into London in Quantities not exceeding six Pounds Weight, hath in a great Measure defeated the good Effects proposed by the said recited Act, and great Quantities of smuggled Tea have thereby been received into the Stocks of fraudulent Tea Dealers, living within the Limits aforesaid:' Now, for the more effectually preventing such evil Practices, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, no Tea whatever shall at any Time (save as herein-after is mentioned) be removed or carried from any Part of this Kingdom, not being within the Limits of the weekly Bills of Mortality, or of the Chief Office of Excise in London, to any Place within the said Limits; and if any Tea whatever shall be found so removed or carried, or removing or carrying, whether with or without Permit (save as herein-after is mentioned), the same, together with the Canisters, Bags, and other Package, containing such Tea, and the Vessels and Boats, and the Horses, and other Cattle and Carriages, employed in removing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

From Aug. 1, 1782, no Tea to be removed from any Part of this Kingdom into the weekly Bills of Mortality (except as hereafter mentioned); on Penalty of Forfeiture thereof.

Other Part of the said Act recited.

'XXII. And whereas by the said recited Act it was further enacted, That no Tea exceeding the Quantity of forty Pounds Weight (save as therein is excepted) at any one Time, directed to one and the same Person, or Persons where there are two or more in joint Trade or Partnership, should be removed or carried from any City, Town, Parish, or Place, in this Kingdom, not being within the Limits aforesaid, to any other Place out of the Limits aforesaid, not within the said City, Town, Parish, or Place, from which the same shall be so removed or carried; and it was by the same Act provided, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent any Dealer in any such City, Town, Parish, or Place, from taking out two or more Permits, and by virtue thereof sending two or more Packages of forty Pounds each to the same Person in the same Day, in Manner therein directed and provided: And whereas the permitting Tea to be sent from Places not being within the Limits of the weekly Bills of Mortality, or of the Chief Office of Excise in London, in so large Quantities as forty Pounds Weight, has been much abused by fraudulent Dealers in Tea, and very considerable Quantities of smuggled Tea have thereby been received by such Dealers, from the Coasts of this Kingdom, to the manifest Diminution of the Revenue, and to the Injury of the fair Trader,' Now, for obviating such Frauds, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, no Tea exceeding the Quantity of twenty Pounds Weight (not being in the original Chest in which the same Tea was imported into this Kingdom by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and then continuing in the same State in which it was so imported), at any

From Aug. 1, 1782, no Tea exceeding 20 Pounds Weight (not being in the Chest in which any one Time, directed to one and the same Person or Persons where there are two or more in joint Trade or Partnership, shall be removed or carried from any City, Town, Parish, or Place, in this Kingdom, not being within the Limits aforesaid, to any other Place out of the Limits aforesaid, not within the said City, Town, Parish, or Place, from which the same shall be so removed or carried; and if any Tea exceeding the Quantity of forty Pounds Weight, at any one Time, directed to one and the same Person, or Persons where there are two or more in joint Trade or Partnership (and not being in the original Chest as aforesaid), shall be found so removed or carried, or removing or carrying, whether with or without Permit, the same, together with the Canisters, Bags, and other Package containing the same, and the Vessels and Boats, and the Horses and other Cattle and Carriages employed in removing or carrying the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; any Thing in the said Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

it was imported), shall be removed out of any City, &c. not within the Bills of Mortality, on Penalty of Forfeiture.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any Dealer in Tea, in any such City, Town, Parish, or Place as aforesaid, from taking out two or more Permits, and by virtue thereof sending two or more Packages of Tea, of twenty Pounds each, to the same Person in the same Day, so as the said Packages shall not contain more than twenty Pounds each, and shall be sent under different Permits, and by different Conveyances.

Several Packages of 20 Pounds each may be sent the same Day.

XXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent Dealers in Tea, who shall have received into their respective Stocks any Tea removed according to the Directions of this Act, and accompanied with an authentick Permit or Certificate, from returning the same for the like Cause, and in Manner and Form, as in and by the said recited Act is mentioned and directed.

Tea removed according to this Act may be returned.

XXV. And be further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Authorities, Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, and Directions, by the said recited Act prescribed and given, and not hereby expressly taken away or altered, shall continue and be exercised, used, and applied, as they might have been if this Act had not been made.

Provisions of the recited Act (not expressly repealed) to remain in Force.

'XXVI. And whereas by the several Statutes relating to the Inland Duties under the Management of 'the Commissioners of Excise, it is directed, that Permits or Certificates should be granted, by the Offi- 'cers of Excise, to accompany exciseable Commodities removing from one Part of this Kingdom to 'another Part thereof, and certain Forms of such Permits have, from Time to Time, been prepared for 'that Purpose, by the Direction and Appointment of the said Commissioners, with certain Stamps and 'Marks impressed thereon: And whereas great Frauds are daily committed by evil-minded Persons, who 'forge or counterfeit such Permits or Certificates, or who knowingly give or grant false and untrue Per- 'mits or Certificates, or who alter or erase Permits or Certificates, after the same have been delivered by 'the proper Officers:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall counterfeit or forge, or cause to be counterfeited or forged, any Permit or Certificate, for the Removal of any exciseable Commodity from one Part of this Kingdom to any other Part thereof, for the Removal of which a Permit or Certificate is by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force required; or if any Person or Persons shall knowingly or willingly give or grant any false or untrue Permit or Certificate, or shall knowingly or willingly accept or receive any false or untrue Permit or Certificate, to accompany any such exciseable Commodity to be removed as aforesaid; or if any Person or Persons shall fraudulently alter or erase any Permit or Certificate after the same shall have been given or granted by the proper Officer of Excise; or if any Person or Persons shall knowingly or willingly publish or make Use of any such Permit or Certificate so counterfeited, forged, false, untrue, altered, or erased; every Person so offending shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of two hundred Pounds; which Forfeiture shall and may be prosecuted in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, one Moiety whereof to be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who will sue for, prosecute, and recover the same; wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance; and every such Permit or Certificate, so counterfeited, forged, erased, or altered, shall be invalid, and of no Effect.

Penalty on Persons counterfeiting any Permit for Removal of exciseable Goods; or who shall knowingly publish or use any such Permit.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, or to be incurred by virtue thereof, shall be sued for, levied, recovered, or mitigated, by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, is or may be recovered or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise (not otherwise directed by this Act), or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; one Moiety whereof shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him who shall discover and sue for the same.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

'XXVIII. And whereas by a Clause in an Act of Parliament, made in the last Session of Parliament, 'intituled, An Act for the better Management and Collection of the Duties upon Male Servants, granted by an Act made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, it is enacted, That all Prosecutions 'for the Recovery of the Duties upon Male Servants, and also for all Forfeitures and Offences made and 'committed within the immediate Limits of the Chief Office of Excise in London, shall be heard, ad- 'judged, and determined, by the Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them: And whereas the 'Business of the said Office cannot be executed with the like Dispatch, Ease and Convenience to the Par- 'ties concerned therein, as might be done in case the said Prosecutions were to be heard, adjudged, and 'determined, by a less Number of the Commissioners of the said Duties for the Time being than a Ma- 'jority of them, as is now done in all other Cases within the Jurisdiction and Limits of the said Chief 'Office of Excise:' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, all such Prosecutions as aforesaid which, before the said twenty-

This Act not to abridge the Powers of Excise Officers.

XXIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to take away or lessen any of the Powers or Authorities heretofore given to the Officers of Excise, and for the Inland Duties, by any Law or Laws now in Force relative to the said Duties.

'WHEREAS it appears, by the Reports made by the Commissioners appointed to examine, take, and state the publick Accounts of the Kingdom, that the Paymasters of the Forces have heretofore been accustomed to accumulate large Sums of Publick Money in their Hands, beyond what was necessary for carrying on the Services in their Department, and to take and carry out of Office with them, upon their Resignation or Removal, large Balances of Publick Money, which they have retained and kept in their Hands many Years after being out of Office: And whereas it is highly expedient that a Remedy should be provided for these Inconveniencies;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces for the Time being, in all Memorials to be by him presented to the Treasury for Money for Army Services, shall pray that such Sum as he requires may be issued to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England on his Account, specifying, in every such Memorial, the Sum he requires, and for what particular Service or Services; and the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, by their Letter from Time to Time shall direct the Auditor of the Exchequer to issue to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on Account of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces, naming such Paymaster General for the Time being, the Sum for which such Letter shall be drawn upon the unsatisfied Order at the Exchequer in favour of the said Paymaster General, for which the Receipt of the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Governor and Company shall be a sufficient Discharge; and all Sums for which such Letters of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury shall be drawn, shall be issued to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in like Manner as they have been heretofore issued to the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces; and all such Monies so to be issued to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall be placed to an Account to be raised in the Books of the Governor and Company of the said Bank of England, and to be intituled, The Account of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces; inserting the Name of such Paymaster General for the Time being.

The Monies issued to the Bank not to be paid thereout, unless for Army Services.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Monies so to be issued to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on Account of the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces, shall not be paid out of the Bank unless for the Army Services, and in pursuance of Drafts or Cheque Paper, to be drawn on the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and signed by the Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces for the Time being, or his Deputy, or the Person or Persons authorised as aforesaid; in which Drafts shall be specified the Heads of Service to which the Sums therein mentioned are to be applied; and which Drafts so drawn shall be sufficient Authority to the Bank to pay such Money to the Persons mentioned in such Drafts, or to the Bearer of them.

Regulations relative to granting of Pensions.

'XVII. And, for the better Regulation of the granting of Pensions, and the Prevention of Abuse or 'Excess therein,' be it enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, no Pension exceeding the Sum of three hundred Pounds a Year, shall be granted to or for the Use of any one Person; and that the whole Amount of the Pensions granted in any one Year, shall not exceed six hundred Pounds; a List of which, together with the Names of the Persons to whom the same are granted, shall be laid before Parliament in twenty Days after the Beginning of each Session, until the whole Pension List shall be reduced to ninety thousand Pounds; which Sum it shall not be lawful to exceed by more than five thousand Pounds in the Whole of all the Grants: Nor shall any Pension, to be granted after the said Reduction, to or for the Use of any one Person, exceed the Sum of one thousand two hundred Pounds yearly, except to his Majesty's Royal Family, or on an Address of either House of Parliament.

Not to extend to Persons who have served the Crown in Foreign Courts.

All Pensions on the Civil List to be paid at the Exchequer.

'XIX. And whereas much Confusion and Expence did arise from having Pensions paid at various Places, 'and by various Persons; and a Custom hath prevailed of granting Pensions on a private List during his 'Majesty's Pleasure, upon a Supposition that in some Cases it may not be expedient for the Publick Good 'to divulge the Names of the Persons in the said List, or that it may be disagreeable to the Persons receiving such Payments to have it known that their Distresses are so relieved, or for saving the Expence of 'Fees and Taxes on small Pensions; by Means of which said Usage, secret and dangerous Corruption 'may hereafter be practised: And whereas it is no Disparagement for any Persons to be relieved by the 'Royal Bounty in their Distress, or for their Desert, but, on the contrary, it is honourable, on just 'Cause, to be thought worthy of Reward:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no

Pension whatsoever, on the Civil Establishment, shall hereafter be paid but at the Exchequer, and in the same Manner as those Pensions which are now paid and entered at the Exchequer, under the Head, Title, and Description of Pensions, and with the Name of the Person to whom, or in Trust for whom, the said Pension is granted; and that those which are transferred thither by this Act shall be subject to no Taxes or Fees whatsoever, except the Taxes and Fees to which before this Act they were subject; any Statute, Law, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding: Nor shall any Pension hereafter to be granted be charged at the Exchequer with further or other Fees than were heretofore paid on Pensions to the Paymaster of the Pensions.

Proviso.

XX. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall restrain, or be construed to restrain, the High Treasurer, or first Commissioner of the Treasury, for the Time being, by his Majesty's Consent, from taking away, or causing to be taken away, from the private List or Lists of Pensions, the Names and Pensions of any Person or Persons which at present are entered on the said private List or Lists, or any of them.

'So help me GOD.'

Oath to be taken when any secret Pension shall continue in the List more than five Years.

XXIII. Provided further, and be it enacted, That if any such secret Pension shall continue in the said List for more than five Years, the High Treasurer, or first Commissioner of the Treasury, or one of the Secretaries, or one of the Chief Clerks of the Treasury, for the Time being, shall make Oath, before such Pension shall be paid at the Exchequer, that he does believe that the Person for whose Use the said Pension or Annuity hath been granted is living.

Payment of Secret Service Money restricted.

'XXIV. And, for preventing as much as may be, all Abuses in the Disposal of Monies issued under the 'Head of Secret Service Money, or Money for special Service;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful to issue or impress from the Exchequer, or order to be paid by a Treasury Warrant, or under Sign Manual, or otherwise, to any Secretary or Secretaries of the Treasury, or to any other Person or Persons whatsoever, from the Civil List Revenues, for the Purpose of Secret Service within this Kingdom, any Sum or Sums of Money which in the Whole shall exceed the Sum of ten thousand Pounds in any one Year.

Clause relative to Foreign Secret Service Money.

XXV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when it shall be deemed expedient by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the High Treasurer, for the Time being, to issue, or in any Manner to direct the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money from the Civil List Revenues, for foreign Secret Service, the same shall be issued and paid to one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or to the first Commissioner of the Admiralty; and the said Secretary or Secretaries of State, or first Commissioner of the Admiralty, shall, for his Discharge at the Exchequer, within three Years from the issuing the said Money, produce the Receipt of his Majesty's Minister, Commissioner, or Consul, in Foreign Parts, or of any Commander in Chief or other Commander of his Majesty's Navy or Land Forces, to whom the said Money shall have been sent or given, that the same hath been received for the Purpose for which the same hath been issued; which said Receipt shall, and is hereby directed to be filed in the Exchequer, in order to charge the said Minister, Commissioner, Consul, or Commander of his Majesty's Land or Sea Forces, with the same; and the said Receipt, on Proof of the Hand Writing, shall be sufficient to acquit and discharge the said Secretary or Secretaries, or first Commissioner of the Admiralty, in their said Account at the Exchequer.

Foreign Ministers, &c. to account for such Money within a Year after their Arrival in Great Britain.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That any Foreign Minister, Consul, or Commander of his Majesty's Land or Sea Forces, who shall stand charged at the Exchequer for or by Reason of any Secret Service Money by him received, shall stand discharged and acquitted thereof, if, within one Year after his Arrival in Great Britain, he shall either return the said Money into the Exchequer, or make Oath before the Barons of the Exchequer, or one of them, in the Form following:

'So help me GOD.'

Secretaries of State, &c. making Payment of any Secret Service Money, shall be sworn as to the Disposal thereof.

So help me GOD.'

No stated Sum to be allowed for Secret Service Money.

'XXVIII. And, to avoid all Confusion in Accounts relative to the said Secret Service' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the certain stated Sums of Money now paid to his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, under the Name of Secret Service Money, but which are commonly reputed and employed as Part of the Salary of the said Office, be no longer entered or paid under that Description or for that Account; but the same, for so long as his Majesty shall please to continue the Whole or any Part thereof, shall be given under the Name of Salary, Fee, or Allowance: And that hereafter no certain or stated Sum be given or allowed for the said Secret Service out of his Majesty's Civil List Revenues; but, when any Monies for Secret Service shall be deemed necessary by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, the same shall be issued, by their Direction, to the Officer or Officers aforesaid, as the Occasion shall require, according as is herein-before directed and provided.

The Payments of the Civil List Revenues to be divided into regular Classes.

'XXXI. And whereas the Establishment of an invariable Order in the Payment of Salaries and other Charges on the Civil List, will enable those who have the Charge thereof the better to provide for the several Services to which the said Civil List Revenues ought to be applied, and will be the Means to prevent the incurring of Debt for the future, and the following Order seems just and equitable for that Purpose; that is to say; First, The Pensions and Allowances of the Royal Family; Secondly, The Payment of the Salaries of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal, the Speaker of the House of Commons, and Judges of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Exchequer, the Chief Justice of Chester, and the Justices of the Courts of Great Session in the Principality of Wales; Thirdly, The Salaries of the Ministers to Foreign Courts, being resident at the said Courts; Fourthly, The approved Bills of all Tradesmen, Artificers, and Labourers, for any Articles supplied, or Work done, for his Majesty's Service; Fifthly, The menial Servants in his Majesty's Household; Sixthly, The Pension List, beginning with the smallest Pensions; Seventhly, The Salaries of all other Places payable out of the Civil List Revenues, beginning with the lowest; Eighthly, The Salaries and Pensions of the High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, and Chancellor of the Exchequer;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Treasury shall, on or before the fifth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, draw out a Plan of the Establishments and Payments of the said Civil List Revenues in Classes, according to the Order herein mentioned, arranging by Estimate the Expence of each Class, and of each individual Office in each Class; and that such Plan shall be signed by the said Commissioners, and deposited with the Clerk of the House of Commons, on or before the said fifth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three; and that, from and after the said fifth Day of April, all Sums of Money which shall become due and payable out of the said Civil List Revenues, for any of the Purposes aforesaid, shall be paid in the Order and according to the Plan herein mentioned.

XXXII. And it is hereby enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to direct the Payment of any Salary or Pension whatsoever, to be made under Sign Manual or otherwise, until the Bills, Salaries, and Pensions of all those who are entitled, according to the foregoing Order, are first discharged, or Cash set apart in the Exchequer sufficient to answer the whole Demand in the preceding Classes: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Commissioners of the Treasury from ordering all occasional Payments, for which Warrants are usually granted at the Treasury, and which are not comprehended in the Classes and Descriptions aforesaid, to be made according to their Discretion, and as the Circumstances of the Case may in their Judgement require.

Salaries, &c. in Arrear for two Years to be extinguished.

XXXIII. 'XXXIV. And whereas it is intended that all Savings from Salaries and Fees of the Offices by this Act 'suppressed, should be applied in Aid of the Civil List Expences, which are necessary, and which, by the Appropriation hereafter made, are in some Measure straightened, be it enacted, That all Fees hitherto payable, and by this Act not excepted, on any Payments within the Civil List Revenues, do still continue to be paid, and remain for the Disposal of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

Fees payable to be disposed of by the Commissioners of the Treasury.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of the Treasury shall cause a regular Book or Books to be kept, for the Charges of each of the Classes and Articles aforesaid, distinctly and apart; and it is hereby directed, that the Result of Payment in the said several Books contained shall, in an orderly Manner, and according to the usual Method in which fair Accounts are kept, be entered in a separate Book at the End of each Year, and the same being opposed to the Receipt of the Civil List Cash, a Balance shall be struck upon the Whole.

'XXXVI. And whereas, upon abolishing the several Offices suppressed by this Act, sundry Persons, 'who may have held their Offices by Patent for Life, or may have legally, or according to the Course of 'Office, purchased the same for a valuable Consideration, and may suffer Hardship by the Suppression 'thereof: And whereas others, though not within the same Description, who have diligently and faithfully executed their several subordinate Offices for his Majesty's Service, and by such Suppression will be 'reduced to distressful or indigent Circumstances;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Treasury may, and they are hereby impowered, to allow to every Person severally who holds his Office by Patent for Life, or who has purchased his Place in the Manner before mentioned, an Annuity equal to the legal Emoluments of his said Office; and also to allow to other Persons in the subordinate Offices aforesaid, upon Examination into the Circumstances and Behaviour of the said Persons, such Annuities severally as the Commissioners of the Treasury shall think equitable and just, for the Support and Maintenance of such Person or Persons, until he or they shall be provided for in his Majesty's Service, according to his or their Abilities and Merit.

Provision to be made for Persons holding Patent Places, &c.

Powers granted by this Act to the Commissioners of the Treasury, shall be vested in the High Treasurer for the Time being.
